From the Editor

Monday, Dec 22nd, 2025

Last night the schoolchildren had their program. They did well, and the house was packed. There's something special about being a dad and watching your scholars put their effort into singing songs about Jesus and memorizing their parts. Our youngest is in second grade, and it makes me realize that a time is coming when this stage of life will be past. But if the good Lord wills it, someday it will be our grandchildren. I'm still too young to be thinking about that!

By the time you read this, I hope to have my toes in the sand in the sunny South. We're taking our children to Florida for a two-week vacation. Here in Indiana, the factories shut down for two weeks, so it just seems right that other businesses do the same.

The children are also out of school for two weeks, which makes this a good time for a family trip. It reminds me of something Todd Wilson says—every time you take a trip like this, you think about what the vacation money could have bought. But in the spirit of 'You da Dad', we're taking the trip and making memories.

This issue includes only two auctions, and both are lumber auctions. These lumber auctions are getting a rebrand and will now be called WoodRing.

As we enter the holiday season, I want to thank each and every one of you for your participation in our auctions and for supporting Sawmill Exchange. We couldn't do it without you. May you, your families, and your businesses be blessed this holiday season.

Our offices will be closed for a few days over Christmas, on New Year's Day, and on January 6. You may still leave a voicemail, and we'll return it as soon as possible.

If you haven't renewed your subscription yet, please do so. Allow a little extra time for mail over the holidays. Also, once your payment arrives, there's a good chance the next issue is already in process, so please allow an issue or two before your expiration date updates on the back cover.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Until next time,

Wayne Nisley, Editor

Equipment Market Report

Brought to you by Bright Star Auctions
Eugene Hochstetler / Vice President / (574) 242-1100

December wrapped up with a busy stretch of auctions, strong participation, and several standout results across both live and virtual formats. From large liquidation events to multi-auction days, buyer interest stayed active and quality equipment continued to bring solid money.

2022 Volvo - Sold for $130,000

2022 Tigercat - Sold for $162,500

December 12 marked a standout day at the McKay Gross Liquidation Auction. Between the main seller's high-quality lineup and lots of strong consignments, the auction offered depth and variety.

With active bidding both on-site and online, competition was strong throughout the day and pricing reflected that demand. The 2022 Tigercat 250 knuckleboom led the way, selling for $162,500, followed closely by the 2022 Volvo L60H wheel loader at $130,000. Dozers also drew heavy interest, highlighted by a 2016 John Deere 700K that sold for $97,500. The skidder lineup performed well, with a 2010 John Deere 548-G3 bringing $80,000.

On the mill side, a 2021 Echo band mill sold for $75,000, while a 2021 Wood-Mizer LT50 brought $40,000. The 2004 Easton walking floor trailer rounded out the trailer highlights at $37,000. By the end of the day, sellers were clearly pleased with the outcome, and auctions like this continue to be possible thanks to their ongoing support.

December 16 was a full day with four virtual auctions. It started with the biweekly lumber auction, where lumber sold well across the board. From there, attention shifted to the Horizon Lumber auction in Iowa. While pricing did not reach the highs seen in stronger past markets, it was still a solid auction overall. Quality power units were in demand, and the Cleereman entire mill sold for $22,000, which felt fair for current conditions.

640 Morbark - Sold! $40,000

2016 John Deere - Sold! $97,500

2010 JD 548G3 - Sold! $80,000

Cleereman Mill Entirety - Sold! $22,000

2020 Wood-Mizer LT40 - Sold! $30,000

The day continued with the Coastal Wood auction in North Carolina, where newer Wood-Mizer equipment performed especially well. A Wood-Mizer LT40 sold for $30,000, the Wood-Mizer slab planer brought $16,000, and the Wood-Mizer firewood splitter sold for $7,250.

The final auction of the day took place at Willsie Lumber in Michigan. While the sawmill equipment initially struggled and several lots were passed during the auction, every piece was sold shortly afterward. In the end, the seller was satisfied with the final results.

On December 17, the Michiana Equipment Yard Auction was held in Middlebury, Indiana. This December event has become known for attracting quality end-of-year consignments, and this year followed that pattern. With a strong lineup and good participation, the auction wrapped up with solid results and a positive close to a busy month. Auctions like this only continue to be possible because of the ongoing support from you, our loyal buyers and sellers.

Wishing you all a blest Christmas season and a Happy New Year!

Sold! We'll see you at the next auction!

2017 Cat - Sold! $60,000

2020 Wood-Mizer Slab Flattener
Sold! $16,000

1998 Volvo - Sold! $44,000

A Rogue Dad-Wave

Hey Dad,

As I get older, there's just something about Christmas that makes me feel emotional. I don't feel it all the time. To be honest, there's also something about Christmas that makes me feel cranky and grumpy...or it could be my family that does that.

Anyway, it usually happens when I least expect it, but all of a sudden I get side-swiped by a rogue wave of Christmas emotion that washes over me and leaves me temporarily stunned. It happened a couple of times this past week. One hit me while we were sleeping around the Christmas tree on Friday night. The married kids and grandkids had gone home leaving the remaining children and us positioned on the floor and couch around the Christmas tree.

I think the others had drifted off, as I lay in the glow of Christmas tree lights just thinking...and feeling. And then it hit, a wave of emotion crashed upon me, knowing that one of my last Christmases on earth will be spent with me propped up in a chair or couch, (alone) thinking about how my children were young once and we did Christmas together. Even now the wave is lapping at my heart.

It hits at other times as I remember sitting in a snowy parking lot with my dad, helping my father-in-law string up lights on a big tree outside his house, or of others who are in heaven that were part of Christmas Eve services in the church I pastored 20 years ago.

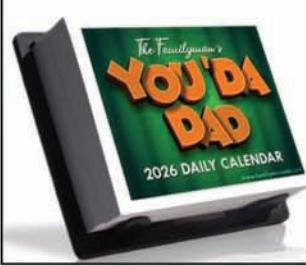

Christmas does that to a dad. Especially this dad. I don't know what the takeaway is...except that one day when you're old or gone, your children will be hit by the same rogue Christmas wave. And they'll remember you, Christmas, and how much you loved them.

Dad, but here's the deal: you have to be "there" now for them to have those feelings "THEN". You WANT them to be hit by the rogue waves of Christmas one day...because it feels good.

BTW - If you're on the fence about 'doing Christmas,' this is what you and your children will miss if you skip it. Just saying.

Do you ever wish a guy would come to your house, slug you in the arm, and tell you to straighten up, be a good dad, and be loving to your wife? Well, now your wildest dreams have come true, because I'll come to your home or office each week and do just that.

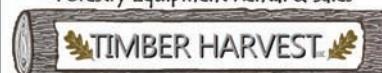

Now, don't be expecting a theological treatise on husbanding, because the

Stolen Timber - Part 1

By Ethan Royer

According to an Indiana state forester, timber theft is on the rise. Why is this? I do not know, but I expect that as society degenerates, the pool of potential timber thieves is increasing. Timber theft occurs in two different ways: intentionally and unintentionally. This month I will relate a couple of instances of intentional timber theft and hopefully draw some lessons from the incidents. Even if we would not stoop to stealing timber, we may inadvertently become part of the problem if we are not careful about who we purchase timber or logs from.

INCIDENT NO. 1

A few years ago, Dad received an early morning phone call from one of our clients who lives only a few miles away. She reported that during the night someone attempted to help themselves to some of her trees near the road. We went over as soon as we could and found an interesting situation. There was a large Cottonwood that was cut but had gotten hung up in surrounding trees. One Basswood was cut, and another was notched. At last they found and cut an immature Walnut, but it fell across the road.

Evidence suggested that training in proper felling techniques was lacking: the stump was butchered and so was the end of the log. In an effort to trim off the splintered end, they pinched their chainsaw bar. This was not going according to plan—assuming they had a plan. Evidently, the pinched saw was the last straw; they removed the powerhead and left empty-handed. The county road crew cleared the tree off the road before we arrived.

As we loaded up the logs, I noticed a passing vehicle with dark windows pulling a flatbed trailer with a winch on the front. It is said that persistence pays off, but in this case, they were too late, the logs were already gone. We reported the incident to the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), which informed us that there had been a recent rash of similar incidents in the area. The DNR didn't get too excited; they said this case was merely vandalism since nothing was actually stolen.

INCIDENT NO. 2

A short time after the first incident, we were scheduled to log a job in nearby Elkhart. The property was a former golf course that had recently been sold. The new owner was in the process of remodeling the clubhouse with plans of eventually living there. A local sawmill had purchased the timber and had shown us the job, but it was early spring, and we were waiting for the ground to dry before starting.

The marked timber was scattered all over the property in little strips and patches, just the way you would expect a golf course to be. As part of the package, we were supposed to remove some trees near the clubhouse to accommodate the building expansion. (In case you wondered, here in Indiana, the line between tree service and logging is frequently blurred.) As you read the following account, keep in mind that it was the mill that was pressing for justice. I was relatively uninvolved, at least I thought so.

The trouble started when the owner sent the timber buyer an innocent text saying, "I see you started working." The timber buyer called me and asked, "You didn't move into that job yet did you?"

No, we hadn't. I met the buyer and the owner at the site to see what was going on. What had happened was someone had come in broad daylight and cut a handful of Walnut trees, winched them onto a trailer, and left. Perhaps due to operating in daylight, they were able to correctly identify Walnut trees this time. Observing their cutting technique was interesting but frightening. If they hung a tree, they would simply go under it and cut the tree it was hung in. Faith over fear?

The construction workers saw it happen but assumed it was legitimate because the trees were marked, and logging was supposed to be occurring. The construction crew mentioned later that hauling logs with a pickup and car trailer with a winch and spinning their way out through the mud and melting snow didn't seem very professional, but they weren't initially suspicious. They did have a vehicle description.

The DNR did take this incident more seriously since trees were stolen and because the mill was pressing them for action. They cut cookies off the stumps so they could match them to the logs if they were found. They also put out cameras in case the thieves returned.

With all due respect to local law enforcement, I must say that northern Indiana conservation officers (COs) are much more knowledgeable about how to handle wildlife violations than timber theft. While they were nice enough and eager to put a stop to this group of thieves, they lacked even a basic knowledge of the timber/sawmill industry. Apparently, they googled "veneer mills near me" and seemed confident that a large but distant veneer mill would be where the logs were headed. I was later informed that the CO told the timber buyer that these situations are usually the logger stealing from the mill—I was the top suspect! We'd worked with this mill for years, and they knew it wasn't me (Isn't my cutting technique a bit more refined?), but the buyer told the CO to check me out.

As it happened, the CO never got around to checking me out. Only several days after the investigation began, a member of the construction crew saw a truck and trailer driving through Elkhart with—you guessed it—Walnut logs. Having been informed of what was going on and recognizing it as the same rig that left the golf course with logs, he followed the truck to its destination, a residence with a stash of Walnut logs out back. Law enforcement was notified and arrived to discover that the truck and trailer were stolen as well as the logs.

However, none of the logs there matched the ones taken from the golf course job. Somehow, they discovered that he was marketing his logs at a sawmill across the state line in Michigan. The golf course logs were found there; they were able to match them up to the stump cookies. The logs were confiscated although the mill owner had paid for them. Moving stolen logs across state lines is a violation of the Lacey Act, making this a federal violation.

Indiana law says that when timber is stolen, a state forester will appraise the timber, either scaling recovered logs or using stumps and tops to estimate log value. The thief is then obligated to pay the rightful owner three times the appraised value. In this case, the logs were recovered so no estimating was necessary; it was a simple matter of scaling the logs. Ironically, the appraised value came in at one-third of the price that they were actually sold for a short time later. (In order for the appraisal to hold up in court, the DNR must use statewide survey data to determine value and apparently markets are not consistent across the state.) It didn't really matter because the thieves didn't have money to pay for the logs anyway.

TAKEAWAYS

- Despite the fact that I was relatively uninvolved, I admit that my human nature wanted to see the thieves brought to justice. It is difficult to "take joyfully the spoiling of your goods" and tame the retaliatory feelings toward evildoers that rise within us. There is far more to nonresistance than merely abstaining from war.
- Most judges (at least in Indiana) are not familiar with timber theft and do not take it too seriously. I'm fairly confident the Walnut logs were considerably more valuable than the stolen truck and trailer, but the police were more excited about those. Fear of punishment is a great motivator for those not equipped with keen consciences. If there is little fear of punishment, we can expect timber theft to continue.

- "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." If you own valuable Walnut trees, it may be prudent to consider ways to discourage theft, especially if they are in a vulnerable location like along a secluded road. My observation has been that most trespassers and thieves are opportunists: if it's difficult to access, they'll stay away. A perimeter fence or gated lane can help. Most of the trees that were stolen by these individuals were easily seen from the seat of a vehicle and were accessible by vehicle and trailer; after all, they had no skidder. Limiting visual access is difficult or impossible—trees are tall—but making your property difficult to access is probably attainable. For instance, thinning woods along the road will result in dense undergrowth that is intimidating and may help obstruct the view from the road.
- We should be cautious about who we buy logs/timber from so that we aren't an innocent accomplice to someone's crime. When buying timber, does the seller's name match real estate title records? When buying logs, does the seller have a timber buyer's license? A license is required in Indiana; however, tree services are exempt from needing a license. If you suspect someone is bringing stolen logs, ask questions! Ask to record their driver's license number or license plate number. Ask to see on a map where the trees came from and what the owner's name is. A legitimate seller won't mind a few questions, but a fraud will get uncomfortable and find elsewhere to go. These Walnut thieves, posing as a tree service, had been selling logs to a small Amish sawmill until the proprietor became suspicious and asked a few too many questions; then they went elsewhere. We buy logs from tree services but usually pick them up on site, which is pretty safe. At times, we plain people are too trusting; we hesitate to question someone's integrity. Are we ethical enough to pass up a good deal if we are suspicious of fraudulent activity? Are we partly at fault when we enable lawlessness even if we ourselves are not technically doing anything wrong? Exercising due diligence goes a long way—as the saying goes, "Trust but verify."

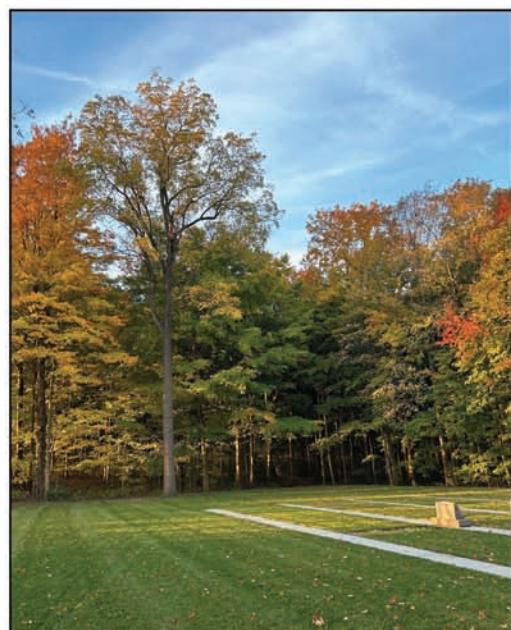

Next month I will relate a couple of instances of unintentional timber theft.

Valuable trees in secluded but public spaces—like the Walnut in this cemetery—are more vulnerable to theft.

The Five Dysfunctions of a Team: Building Trust and Achieving Results

Patrick Lencioni's book, The Five Dysfunctions of a Team, is essential reading for anyone leading or working within a team. Right from the introduction, Lencioni makes a powerful statement: it's not finance, strategy, or technology that creates the ultimate competitive advantage—it's teamwork. And teamwork remains rare precisely because it's so powerful.

Why do so few companies engage in truly collaborative teamwork? Lencioni answers this with a bold declaration: "If you get all the people in your organization rowing in the same direction, you will dominate any industry in any market, against any competition, at any time." When teams genuinely pull together, the results are remarkable.

I recently witnessed this firsthand while working with a dysfunctional team. The atmosphere was toxic, progress was stalled, and morale was at rock bottom. Then one person left the team, and everything changed overnight. The energy spiked immediately. People became excited, collaborative, and determined to succeed together. It was a vivid reminder of how one dysfunctional element can poison an entire group.

Lencioni identifies five core dysfunctions that prevent teams from reaching their potential: the absence of trust, the fear of conflict, the lack of commitment, the avoidance of accountability, and the inattention to results. Let's explore each of these in depth.

The Absence of Trust

Trust runs deep—as deep as love itself. I hear people say "I don't trust that person" constantly, and it's become increasingly common in recent years. Let me share a story that illustrates this perfectly. I was coaching two men—let's call them Brother A and Brother B—who worked together at the same company. Brother A would call me regularly to complain about workplace issues, about the boss, about various problems.

During one hour-long conversation, he finally admitted: "I don't trust my leader." I asked him bluntly, "Why are you still there? Find someone you can trust." Then I pressed further: "What are you going to tell him when we hang up? He saw you on the phone for an hour. He walked past your office multiple times and looked through the window."

Brother A replied, "Well, I'll just tell him I had some questions for a coach."

"Okay," I said. "But what keeps you from being open and honest with him?"

"I don't trust him." Given how I operate, my next question was inevitable: "Are you going to tell your boss, or shall I?"

He hesitated, then said, "Yeah, maybe it would be good if you talked to him."

So I arranged a conversation with Brother B, who happened to be the company owner. He shared his perspective, and suddenly things became much clearer. The trust between these two men had deteriorated completely. They were constantly watching their backs, avoiding difficult conversations, and second-guessing each other's motives.

I asked each of them individually: "Are you willing to put in the effort to rebuild the trust?" Both answered no. At that point, only one solution remained. I facilitated a meeting with both men in the room, and it ended with Brother B handing Brother A a check: "Here's two weeks' paid vacation. Find another job and don't come back."

This might seem harsh, but when trust is completely gone and neither party is willing to rebuild it, separation is often the healthiest option for everyone involved. Trust is the bedrock of everything else. Without trust, we cannot have open, honest conversations. Without honest conversations, problems don't get solved. Without problem-solving, we cannot have commitment or accountability.

Henry Cloud wrote an excellent book simply titled Trust, where he states: "Trust is fuel. It's the fuel that makes every relationship, every team, and every organization move forward." Stephen Covey's The Speed of Trust offers another valuable perspective: when trust decreases, speed decreases and costs increase. The more we trust each other, the faster things happen and the smoother operations run.

Think about it: we have contracts because people don't trust each other and because we're forgetful. We have elaborate security systems because people don't trust each other. If we had complete trust, we could operate with a simple cash box by the door where people pay honestly for what they take. Building trust makes everything faster, cheaper, and more efficient.

Lencioni explains that people operating in high-trust environments admit their weaknesses and mistakes freely. They ask for help when needed rather than hiding in corners. They accept questions and input instead of protecting themselves and concealing weaknesses. When trust exists, conflict becomes possible—and productive.

The Fear of Conflict

Here's a critical insight: silence is not the absence of conflict. Conflict for its own sake isn't productive, but healthy, productive conflict is essential for team success.

Most business owners, especially those from Anabaptist communities, don't have enough healthy conflict in their organizations. We avoid confrontation because we want to keep the peace. We believe that if we stay quiet and don't say anything, the conflict will simply disappear. Sometimes that happens, but more often, unaddressed conflict grows worse. Feelings intensify. The situation deteriorates beyond what it would have been if we'd simply put the issue on the table and worked through it together.

I once attended a planning meeting that perfectly illustrated the absence of healthy conflict. A colleague invited me to lunch, mentioning casually that they were planning an event and needed help. I agreed, thinking it would be productive. That meeting turned out to be one of the biggest wastes of time I've ever experienced. The first hour we made small talk. The second hour we did introductions. The third hour we ate. The fourth hour the chairman simply told us what we were going to do, and then we went home. I told my wife afterward that it was the most boring meeting I'd ever attended.

Everyone just sat there saying "yes" to everything. There was no discussion, no debate, no real input. The chair had already decided everything, and we were just there to rubber-stamp his decisions. This is false peace—peace through strength and authority rather than genuine agreement and collaboration. It's the same approach some leaders use: "I'm the boss, I'll tell you what to do, just be quiet and do it."

This creates compliance, not commitment. As soon as the authority figure leaves the room or loses power, the suppressed conflict emerges. Real peace comes through healthy conflict—through putting ideas on the table, debating them respectfully, and arriving at solutions together.

The Lack of Commitment

Why do we need conflict? Imagine you're in a meeting where someone proposes an idea you believe won't work. But you don't say anything. You leave the meeting knowing the plan is to build this thing, and you're convinced it will fail. Because you didn't voice your concerns—because you didn't trust the person enough to engage in healthy conflict—you're not truly committed to the outcome.

These dysfunctions are interconnected. If you trust someone, you'll put issues on the table and engage in healthy debate. For most of us, if we feel heard, we don't need to be right. When I hear you and you hear me, I can commit fully. I'm in. I'm invested in making this work, even if it wasn't my original idea. Being heard creates clarity and enables genuine commitment.

The Avoidance of Accountability

When we're truly committed, we can hold each other accountable—the fourth layer of team health. We trust each other enough to have conflict, make commitments, and hold each other accountable. This is how teams achieve results together.

Without commitment, accountability becomes impossible. Ambiguity creeps in. People say things like "Well, I wasn't sure if you meant this or that" or "I'm not really accountable for that." Everything exists in a gray area where no one takes clear ownership.

Inattention to Results

Are we truly bought in as a team to achieve the results we need? Healthy teams that trust each other, engage in productive conflict, make clear commitments, and hold each other accountable will naturally achieve results. Unhealthy teams that lack trust, avoid conflict, make weak commitments, and dodge accountability will struggle to produce results.

There's one exception: sometimes a single great leader—what Jim Collins calls "a leader with a thousand followers"—can drive results through sheer individual excellence. But when that leader leaves, the results leave with them because there's no functional team to sustain the work.

Embracing Our Humanity

Lencioni offers this profound insight: "Successful teamwork is not about mastering subtle sophisticated theories, but rather it is about embracing common sense with uncommon levels of discipline and persistence."

Then he adds these powerful sentences: "Teams succeed because they are exceedingly human. By acknowledging the imperfections of their humanity, members of functional teams overcome the natural tendencies that make teamwork so elusive."

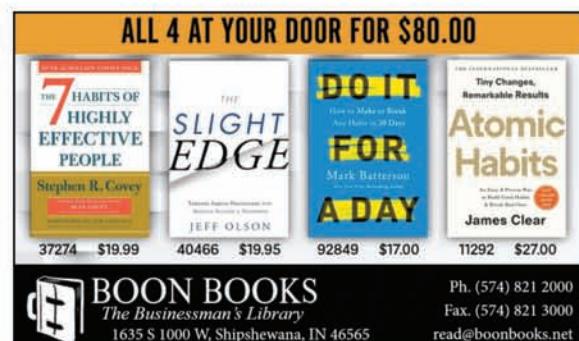

Teams succeed because they are exceedingly human. Not in spite of our humanity, but because of it. When we acknowledge our imperfections, admit our weaknesses, and work together with humility and trust, we create something far more powerful than any individual could achieve alone.

The path to building a high-functioning team isn't complicated, but it requires discipline, persistence, and courage. Start with trust. Build from there.

“Reserve” or “With Reserve” means that the Auctioneer may Withdraw Property put up at Auction and/or bids may be rejected prior to the Fall of the Hammer. UNLESS SPECIFICALLY AND EXPRESSLY STATED OTHERWISE BY AUCTIONEER IN WRITING, ALL PROPERTY IS BEING WITH RESERVE.

“Reserve Price” means the minimum price that Seller is willing to accept for specific Property.

“Seller’s Confirmation” means Seller’s confirmation, approval, and acceptance of the High Bid Subject to Confirmation acknowledged and recorded by Auctioneer.

“Subject to Seller’s Confirmation” means, with respect to any Property expressly identified in this Agreement as being sold Subject to Seller’s Confirmation, that after the High Bid Subject to Seller’s Confirmation has been received and acknowledged by Auctioneer, Seller may determine, in Seller’s sole and absolute discretion, to (i) accept such bid or (ii) reject such bid.

“Winning Bid” means the highest bid received and accepted (and if Subject to Seller’s Confirmation, confirmed by Seller).

“Winning Bidder” means the Bidder who is recognized by Auctioneer as having made the Winning Bid.

“Withdraw” refers to the circumstance in which the Property is removed from the Auction, or in which it is determined that such Property will not be offered or sold at the Auction.

3. Bidder Registration. All persons desiring to bid at the Auction, must register to bid and be issued a Bidder Number. In order to register to bid, each potential Bidder must provide such information (including identifying information and qualifications) as requested by Auctioneer. Auctioneer may refuse to accept a Bidder Registration from any potential Bidder, may refuse to issue a Bidder Number to any potential Bidder, and, if a Registered Bidder breaches any Bidder Terms or engages in improper conduct, Auctioneer may revoke any Bidder Number. By registering to bid at the Auction, each Registered Bidder acknowledges and agrees that such Registered Bidder has read, understands, and agrees to be bound by, these Bidder Terms. In Auctioneer’s discretion, bids may be received from a person who has not registered to bid, and by placing a bid accepted by Auctioneer such unregistered Bidder will be bound by these Bidder Terms and will immediately complete a Bidder Registration.

4. Governing Law.

1.1 For Auctions in the State of Indiana and Online. Unless otherwise indicated, all Property is offered for sale in the State of Indiana, and will be sold in the State of Indiana. Notwithstanding the physical location of the Bidder or any Participant, these Terms are deemed to be entered into in the State of Indiana, all bids and payments are deemed to be received in the State of Indiana, and the contract, if any, will be deemed to be formed and entered into in the State of Indiana.

5. Buyer’s Premium. All Property offered at the Auction is subject to a Buyer’s Premium, which will be paid by the Buyer to Auctioneer for Auctioneer’s own account. The Buyer’s Premium will be calculated as a percentage of the Hammer Price, and will be added to the Hammer Price to determine the final Purchase Price. Buyer agrees to pay the Winning Bid plus the applicable Buyer’s Premium.

6. Access to Auction Site. Participants assume all risks associated with their presence at the Auction Site or their access to the online bidding platform utilized by Auctioneer. Any person may be denied access to the Auction, the Auction Site, and the online bidding platform utilized by Auctioneer, and may be removed at Auctioneer’s discretion.

7. Nature of the Auction. This Property is being sold at the Auction in the manner indicated on the first page of this Agreement.

8. Bidding. Registered Bidders may only bid at the Auction by agreeing to be bound by these Bidder Terms. By bidding, each Registered Bidder acknowledges and agrees that such Registered Bidder has had a full and fair opportunity to read, and understands, these Bidder Terms, and affirms that such Registered Bidder is subject to and bound by these Bidder Terms.

9. No Bid Retraction. Bidder may not retract a bid that has been acknowledged by Auctioneer or that has been submitted online. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Auctioneer is acting in reliance on tendered bids in the conduct of the Auction, and that bid retraction is disruptive and interferes with the Auction, and that, as an inducement for Auctioneer to accept such Bidder’s Bidder Registration and for such Bidder to bid at the Auction, Bidder agrees not to withdraw or to attempt to withdraw any tendered bid that has been acknowledged by Auctioneer.

10. Online Auction. The following terms and conditions apply if the Auction is conducted, in whole or in part, online:

10.1. Online Bidding Registration. Anyone desiring to bid online, or to establish the possibility of bidding online, will be required to create an online bidding account by completing all necessary forms and providing required information.

10.2. Bidder Terms and Conditions; Notices and Announcements. The Auction will be conducted in accordance with Auctioneer’s Terms and any notices or announcements by Auctioneer and/or posted on Auctioneer’s website.

10.3. Posted Times. All times are based on the Eastern Standard Time zone unless stated otherwise. Posted closing times and time displays are approximate. Auctioneer reserves the right to close early or extend the Auction at any time at Auctioneer’s sole and absolute discretion.

10.4. Online Bidding Increments. Auctioneer may establish bid increments, and may modify or change bid increments, in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.

10.5. Records of Online Activity. Absent clerical errors, Auctioneer's records will be deemed final and conclusive.

10.6. Technology Disruptions. Auctioneer will not be responsible for technology disruptions, errors, or failures (including disruptions to bidding or the failure to execute, recognize, or record online bids), whether caused by (i) loss of connectivity, breakdown, disruption, or failure of the Online Auction Platform, (ii) breakdown, disruption, or failure of a Bidder's internet connection, computer, or system, (iii) viruses or software malfunction, or (iv) otherwise. Auctioneer may, but will not be required to, continue, suspend, delay, extend, reschedule, or close the Auction because of disruptions caused by technology failures, even after bidding has commenced.

10.7. Failures by Online Auction Platform Provider and its Affiliates or Contractors. Auctioneer may use an Online Auction Platform Provider to facilitate the Auction. Under no circumstances will Auctioneer be liable for any failure of the Online Auction Platform Provider to perform all or any of its obligations, or for the failure of any affiliates, employees, agents, representatives, or contractors of the Online Auction Platform Provider to perform their obligations.

10.8. Auto Extend Feature. Any Online Bidding Period may include an auto extend feature. This means that, if an online bid is entered within a set time period approaching the end of the established Online Bidding Period, the Online Bidding Period will automatically be extended for an additional amount of time in increments established by Auctioneer, and will continue to be so extended until there is a set period of time that lapses during which no online bids are received, after which bidding will close.

10.9. Disclaimer. Auctioneer makes no representations or warranties, and disclaims any representations or warranties, (i) that the Online Auction Platform or any related website or technology will be uninterrupted, error free or virus free, (ii) as to the results that may be obtained by using the Online Auction Platform or any related website or technology, or (iii) as to the accuracy, completeness, reliability, security, or current nature of the Online Auction Platform or any related website technology.

10.10. Responsibility for Online Bids. If a Winning Bid is sent to Auctioneer from the computer of a Registered Bidder, and is, thereafter, confirmed by Seller, such Registered Bidder will be the Buyer.

10.11. No Reduction or Retraction of Online Bids. Online bids may not be reduced or retracted.

10.12. Competing Online and Onsite Bids. In the event of contemporaneously made online and onsite bids, Auctioneer will determine which bid is the successful bid, and may, in Auctioneer's discretion, reopen the bidding.

10.13. Winning Bidders Subject to Certification by Auctioneer. The final determination of the Winning Bidder is subject to certification by Auctioneer; and any email or electronic message (whether generated manually or automatically) is subject to such certification.

11. Absentee Bids; Remote Bidding. In Auctioneer's discretion, Auctioneer may receive Absentee Bids and/or bids tendered by remote Bidders (whether telephonically or otherwise). All prebids and maxbids placed online are considered absentee bids. Auctioneer pledges complete integrity in the treatment of absentee bids and absentee bids may be initiated and advanced in accordance with Auctioneer's policies and procedures. Auctioneer has the right to initiate any absentee bids at 25% to 50% of their maximum amount. Auctioneer will make reasonable efforts to execute Absentee Bids, but Auctioneer will have no liability to any Absentee Bidder for the failure to execute any Absentee Bids for any reason whatsoever. Each Absentee Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Property may be sold to another Bidder for the maximum amount of the Absentee Bid based on a bidding sequence that causes another Bidder to reach such amount first. If the execution of an Absentee Bid at its maximum amount would require Auctioneer to accept a bid that is less than a full bidding increment, Auctioneer has the sole and absolute discretion to accept or reject such bid. An Absentee Bidder may provide instructions to the Auctioneer to advance the bid by one or more bidding increments after the maximum amount of the Absentee Bid is, or would be, reached. Auctioneer acts only as the agent of the Seller, and the receipt and/or execution of Absentee Bids will not create an agency relationship between Auctioneer and any Absentee Bidder.

12. Bid Increments. Bid increments are established and controlled by Auctioneer, and may be adjusted or modified in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.

13. Registered Bidders Responsible for Bids Placed on Bidder Number. Each Registered Bidder is responsible for the Bidder Number issued to such Registered Bidder. Auctioneer is not responsible for monitoring or policing the use of Bidder Numbers, and each Registered Bidder is responsible for all bids made on the Bidder Number issued to such Registered Bidder even if the Registered Bidder claims that the Bidder Number was lost, stolen, or misappropriated, unless notice of a lost, stolen, or misappropriated Bidder Number was provided to Auctioneer prior to an unauthorized bid being made. Absent a clerical error, Auctioneer's recording of bids against a Bidder Number will be conclusive as to the making of such bid by, or on behalf of, the Registered Bidder.

14. Withdrawal of Property. Auctioneer has the absolute right to withdraw any Property from the Auction prior to the Fall of the Hammer, unless the Property is explicitly provided that the Property is being sold at an Absolute Auction.

15. Winning Bid; Buyer. Pursuant to these Bidder Terms, the Bidder making the Winning Bid for any Lot of Personal Property will be the Buyer of such Property.

16. All Property Sold "AS IS", "WHERE IS", and "WITH ALL FAULTS". ALL PROPERTY IS BEING OFFERED AND SOLD IN ITS AS IS/WHERE IS CONDITION AT THE TIME OF THE AUCTION, WITH ALL FAULTS, INCLUDING ANY HIDDEN DEFECTS OF ANY NATURE. NEITHER AUCTIONEER NOR SELLER MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, OR GUARANTEES WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, REGARDING THE NATURE, VALUE, SOURCE, AUTHENTICITY, FITNESS, MERCHANTABILITY, AND/OR ANY OTHER ASPECT OR CHARACTERISTICS OF SUCH PROPERTY. NO STATEMENT ANYWHERE, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING VERBAL STATEMENTS MADE BY AUCTIONEER, WILL BE DEEMED A WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION BY AUCTIONEER OR SELLER. WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AUTHENTICITY,

ORIGIN, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED. EACH BIDDER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT HE, SHE, OR IT CANNOT RELY, AND HAS NOT RELIED, ON ANY REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, OR GUARANTY MADE BY THE SELLER OR ANYONE ACTING AS AGENT OF THE SELLER, ORALLY OR IN WRITING, ABOUT THE PROPERTY, OR ANY OF IT. BY BIDDING, EACH BIDDER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT SUCH BIDDER HAS HAD A FULL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITY TO INSPECT THE PROPERTY, AND IS RELYING SOLELY ON, OR HAS WAIVED, SUCH BIDDER'S INSPECTION AND INVESTIGATION (i) IN DETERMINING WHETHER TO BID, (ii) IN DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF A BID, AND (iii) IN BIDDING.

17. Announcements. Subject to the limitation set forth in these Bidder Terms, all terms and conditions and other announcements made by Auctioneer on the day of the Auction are binding and take precedence over any advertisements or listings.

18. Bidder's Inspection. By bidding, each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that such Bidder has had a full and fair opportunity to inspect the Property, and is relying solely on, or has waived, such Bidder's inspection and investigation (i) in determining whether to bid, (ii) in determining the amount of a bid, and (iii) in bidding. Bidder accepts any and all risks associated with the purchase and/or use of the Property. Bidder agrees to defend, hold harmless, indemnify, and protect both Auctioneer and Seller from any all claims of injury arising out of or relating to the purchase or use of the Property.

19. Description of Property. Unless otherwise expressly stated otherwise in writing, any description of Property is based solely on visual impression, and is given solely for identification purposes, and does not create any warranty, expressed or implied, or representation by Auctioneer.

20. Contract of Sale for Personal Property. By operation of these Terms, no additional or further writing will be required to evidence the existence of a contract of sale for any Personal Property Knocked-Down at the Auction regardless of the Purchase Price, and these Bidder Terms, together with Auctioneer's clerking sheets or other physical or digital notation identifying the Lot, the Hammer Price, and the Buyer, will be conclusive evidence as to the terms of the sale. These Bidder Terms will be incorporated into the contract between each Buyer and Seller.

21. Bidding by or on Behalf of Seller. At an Absolute Auction there is no Seller bidding. The Seller or anyone acting on the Seller's behalf will not bid (directly or indirectly) on any Property put up at Absolute Auction. At a Reserve Auction, the Seller or anyone acting on the Seller's behalf will not bid (directly or indirectly) on any Property put up at Reserve Auction, unless the Auctioneer announces and discloses that the Seller (or someone on behalf of the Seller) will be bidding at the Auction.

22. Conduct of the Auction. Auctioneer will regulate all matters relating to the conduct of the Auction and Auctioneer's decisions will be final and binding. Auctioneer will have control over bidding, and Auctioneer will resolve any and all disputes. If (i) a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid or while bidding is otherwise being terminated, or (ii) promptly after the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding Auctioneer is made aware of a bid that was unnoticed prior to the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding, and it is demonstrated to Auctioneer's satisfaction that such bid was, in fact, timely made, or (iii) promptly after the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding Auctioneer is made aware that Auctioneer and a bid assistant or ringman, or multiple bid assistants or ringmen, have acknowledged bids in the same amount bid from different bidders, or (iv) some other bid dispute arises, Auctioneer may, in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion, reopen the bidding (but will not be required to). Any contract formed with the Fall of the Hammer will be subject to the conditions set forth in this Section. If bidding is reopened pursuant to this Section, the bid recognized by Auctioneer prior to the reopening of the bidding will be held, and may not be retracted, and, if no further bids are received, such bid will be the Winning Bid.

23. Motor Vehicles and Equipment. Any and all motor vehicles and motorized equipment (including, without being limited to, automobiles, trucks, vans, recreational vehicles, motor cycles, motor scooters, tractors, earth moving equipment and other heavy equipment) must be paid in full prior to removal from the Auction Site; and, if any vehicles or equipment is paid for with a check, the vehicle or equipment will not be released unless and until the check clears the drawee bank and the funds have been received by Auctioneer.

24. All Sales Final. ALL SALES ARE FINAL. NO REFUNDS OR RETURNS.

25. Sales Tax. Subject to applicable exemptions, if any, each Buyer is responsible for the payment of sales tax for each Lot Knocked-Down at the Auction, which sales tax will be collected by Auctioneer at the time payment is made.

26. Payment. All Personal Property must be paid for in-full by onsite Buyers on the day of the Auction, at or before the conclusion of the Auction, and before any Property is removed from the Auction Site by or on behalf of the Buyer. Online purchases are due upon receipt of your invoice. Onsite purchases may be paid in cash or approved check, and, when authorized by the Seller and made available by Auctioneer, by credit card or debit card. Cash payments totaling Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or more will not be accepted. If onsite bidders wish to send a wire, they must present a bank letter of credit (with limit stated equal to or higher than the amount owed by bidder) and wire must be sent no later than one business day after the auction. Online purchases must be paid by credit card or approved check; provided, however, that any online purchases in excess of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) must be paid by wire transfer or certified funds unless other arrangements are made with Auctioneer in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.

27. Wire Transfer Payments. Buyer shall obtain verbal verification of all bank account information from Bright Star Auctions prior to initiating transfer. Except as otherwise provided by law, we shall not be liable for any loss or damage due to misplaced, unauthorized or fraudulent fund transfers.

28. ACH/eCheck Payments. By providing account information to Bright Star Auctions, buyer gives permission for Bright Star Auctions to retain payment information on file and represents they are the authorized account holder. Upon authorization to collect payment from Buyer's account and prior to transfer, Buyer is responsible to notify their financial institution of the impending transaction. Buyer agrees to notify Bright Star Auctions of any changes in account information.

29. Returned Checks. Any checks that are returned unpaid will be subject to a returned check fee in the amount of Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($50.00). In addition to the foregoing, Auctioneer will be entitled to recover, from the issuer of a returned check, all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, for the collection of payment made in the form of a check that has been returned unpaid.

30. No Stop Payment Orders or Credit Card Chargebacks. Each Bidder agrees that such Bidder will not, under any circumstances, (i) issue a stop payment order with respect to any checks issued at or in connection with the Auction, or (ii) initiate a credit card chargeback with respect to any purchases at the Auction. Each Bidder further agrees that if, in violation of these Terms, a stop payment order is issued or a credit card chargeback is initiated, these Terms will be conclusive evidence of the Bidder's (i) waiver of any rights to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback, and (ii) agreement not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback; and each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that on Auctioneer's presentation of these Terms to the bank, credit card company, or other financial institution against which a check was drawn or that issued the credit card on which charges were made, such bank, credit card company, or other financial institution will reverse any stop-payment order and/or deny any credit card chargeback, and will re-credit all amounts to or for the account of Auctioneer. If, in violation of these Terms, a Bidder issues a stop payment order or initiates a credit card chargeback, such Bidder, even if successful, will remain liable for all purchases made at the Auction, and will be responsible for all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by or on behalf of Auctioneer and/or Seller in challenging the stop payment order or credit card chargeback and in collecting payment. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that the covenant not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback is a condition to the issuance of a Bidder Number to such Bidder, and is being made as an inducement for Auctioneer to accept such Bidder's Bidder Registration and to issue a Bidder Number. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Auctioneer is relying on the covenant not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback in accepting such Bidder's Bidder Registration and in issuing a Bidder Number.

31. Pick-up and Removal; Shipping. Each Buyer is responsible for removal of Lots purchased at the Auction, including shipping to remote Buyers. Pick-up and removal dates and times will be as posted on Auctioneer's website or announced at the Auction. Unless otherwise agreed, each Buyer is solely responsible for the disassembly, removal, shipping, and transportation of each Lot purchased by such Buyer. Tools, packing material, and/or assistance will not be supplied at Pickup, so Buyer must plan accordingly. Disassembly and removal shall be done in a quiet and workmanlike manner, and each Buyer, in making its bid, shall thereby indemnify and hold harmless both Auctioneer and Seller against any and all damage caused by the acts of the Buyer, or such Buyer's employees, agents, representatives, or independent contractors in connection with the Pickup. Any and all damages to the Pickup site, including, without being limited to damages to land or buildings, caused by a Buyer or by an employee, agent, representative, or independent contractor of a Buyer, will be repaired by, or at the expense of, such Buyer to the satisfaction of Auctioneer and Seller. Each Buyer must show a copy of the invoice (digital or hard copy) and government-issued photo identification before Lots will be released. No Buyer shall bring pets or young children to the Pickup, as the movement of Lots presents an extremely high-risk environment that could result in injury or death.

32. Insurance. Any work performed by Purchaser(s) or Purchaser Representative (including sub-contractors) shall be insured and provide proof of coverage against all claims for injuries against persons or damages to property which may arise from or in connection with the removal of items or equipment. Insurance coverage requirements are as follows: General Liability $1,000,000/$2,000,000 and Worker's Compensation $1,000,000 or as required by State Law. Seller shall be listed as additionally insured, if required.

33. Abandoned Items. Any Lots not paid in full, not picked up and removed in the time provided (but, under any circumstances, within thirty (30) days after the Auction), or for which payment has not cleared (within five (5) days after the Auction), will be considered abandoned and may be offered for sale at a later auction or subject to other disposition. Such abandonment does not, however, relieve the Buyer or the Buyer's obligation to make payment in full. Any payments made by or on behalf of a Buyer are non-refundable, and Buyers will remain responsible for the full purchase price of all Lots sold to them. In addition, Buyer's bidding privileges may be suspended at future auctions.

34. Claims. With respect to Lots removed from the Auction Site by or on behalf of a Buyer, no claims or returns will be allowed and no claim will be allowed for adjustments or rescission of any sales based on the failure of a Lot to correspond with any standard and/or expectation of the Buyer.

35. Risk of Loss for Personal Property. Risk of loss with respect to Personal Property passes to the Buyer with the Fall of the Hammer. Neither Auctioneer nor Seller will be liable for any loss or damage to a Lot after such Lot is sold at the Auction, other than as may be directly and solely caused Auctioneer's negligence, gross negligence, or intentional misconduct in handling and safeguarding the Lot while in Auctioneer's sole and exclusive possession.

36. Buyer's Remedies; Bidders/Buyers Not Entitled to Incidental or Consequential Damages. To the extent that any Bidder or Buyer may be entitled to damages or remedies, the sole and exclusive remedy available to Bidders and Buyers is a return of the Purchase Price actually paid. Under no circumstances will Auctioneer or the Seller be liable for incidental or consequential damages, including, without being limited to lost profits or reduced productivity. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that no Bidder or Buyer is entitled to specific performance or other equitable relief.

37. Seller's Remedies. If any Buyer breached such Buyer's obligations under these Terms or under a sale contract with the Seller of Property sold at the Auction, in addition to all other legal and equitable remedies, such property may be resold and the breaching Buyer will be responsible for any and all damages, including any deficiency or reduction in the Purchase Price, along with incidental damages.

38. Indemnification. Each Bidder agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Auctioneer and Seller harmless from any current or future claim regarding the Auction or the Property, including, without being limited to, fitness, use, damage, safety, or injuries to persons or property.

39. Private Sale. No Participant or Registered Bidder may offer to enter into a Private Sale for the purchase of any of the Property prior to, during, or after the Auction. If any of the Property is not Knocked Down at the Auction and Bidder enters into an agreement to buy (i) any of the Personal Property from the Seller within ten (10) days after the Auction, and/or (ii) any of the Real Property within ninety (90) days after the Auction, Bidder shall pay to Auctioneer an amount equal to Auctioneer's full commission and Buyer's Premium.

40. Waiver. Certain provisions of these Bidder Terms are for the exclusive benefit of Auctioneer and/or Seller(s). Such provisions, including, without being limited to, Bidder registration and qualification requirements, deposit and payment terms (including the method, form, and timing of payment), removal and delivery terms, and Property inspection terms), do not create, and will not be deemed to create, any benefits or rights in favor of any other persons, including competing Bidders, and may not be enforced by any other persons. Either globally or on a case by case basis Auctioneer and/or Seller may (but will not be required to) waive any provisions of these Terms that are intended for the benefit of Auctioneer and/or Seller.

41. Compliance with the Law. Bidder shall not engage in any illegal conduct on the Auction Site and shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws. Bid pooling occurs when Bidders collude to regulate, and artificially suppress, bidding in an effort to reduce the Hammer Price. Anyone participating in bid pooling will be removed from the Auction Site and referred for prosecution. Theft is a serious offense, and, if discovered, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Instances of theft will result in immediate termination of bidding and removal from the Auction Site.

42. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial. These Bidder Terms will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana, including its statutes of limitations, but without regard to its rules governing conflict of laws. All claims, disputes, and other matters between the parties will be brought in the state or federal courts sitting in and for Elkhart County, Indiana, which courts will have exclusive jurisdiction, and will be the exclusive venue, for any and all such claims, disputes, and other matters. By submitting a Bidder Registration and accepting a Bidder Number each Registered Bidder irrevocably and unconditionally (i) agrees that any claim or suit relating to these Bidder Terms, or the transactions contemplated hereby, will be brought in the state or federal courts sitting in and for Elkhart County, Indiana; (ii) consents to the jurisdiction of such courts for any such claim, suit or cause of action; (iii) waives any objection that such party may have to the laying of venue of any such claim, suit or cause of action in such courts; and (iv) waives any objection to the bringing of such claim, suit or cause of action in such courts on the grounds of forum non conveniens. Each Bidder, Buyer, and other Participants waive the right to a jury trial.

43. Attorneys' Fees. If any Participant breaches such Participant's obligations under these Terms, Auctioneer and/or Seller will be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing their rights.
