From the Editor

Monday, Jan 26th, 2026

Winter Storm Fern is upon us. This one is big enough that they have given it a name, and it is affecting most of the states. We have had a lot of snow and some brutally cold weather. The lowest we had at our house was -7 on Saturday morning. I kind of like it though, at least for a bit, even if it takes a bunch of wood to keep the house warm. It feels like those good old-fashioned winters we had when we were kids. Looks like most of this week is supposed to be cold, snowy, and windy, at least here in Indiana. Make sure to bundle up!

A major winter storm swept across much of the United States this past week, bringing heavy snow, ice, and bitter cold from the South through the Midwest and into the Northeast. Travel was heavily disrupted, with widespread road closures and flight cancellations, while hundreds of thousands of homes and businesses were left without power. In some regions, ice buildup caused long restoration times as crews worked carefully in dangerous conditions. While the worst of the snowfall is beginning to move out, lingering cold temperatures and slick roads are expected to remain a challenge for several days.

This cold weather is a great time to spend time with family and to work on those honey-do list items for "Fix It or Finish It February." See Todd Wilson's article in this issue. On Saturday, I cleaned all the P-traps in the house, which is not much fun but a part of home ownership. I also cleaned the buggy inside and out and put one fender back on. The children went skating in the 10-degree weather.

There is not a whole lot of news to report on at this time. The February IronRing auction looks to be a dandy, so make sure to check that one out. We are also accepting consignments for the Belleville Lumber auction on March 20 in Belleville, PA. If you are in that area and have some equipment to move, check it out.

Thanks to everyone who renewed their subscription. We truly appreciate your support of the magazine and our auctions. We are always looking for ways to improve and bring value to you and your operation, and we are always open to suggestions.

Meanwhile, be safe, stay warm, and drink coffee. ☕

Until next time,

Wayne Nisley, Editor

Equipment Market Report

Brought to you by Bright Star Auctions
Eugene Hochstetler / Vice President / (574) 242-1100

As the new year gets underway, market activity is beginning to take shape, giving us an early look at demand trends heading into the first quarter. Winter weather has made its presence known across much of the country, slowing down some operations but not dampening demand for quality products in the marketplace.

2025 John Deere - Sold for $60,000

2019 Manitou - Sold for $35,000

The January 20 WoodRing auction set a positive tone to start the year, with steady bidding and solid buyer interest across the board. While winter months can be unpredictable, this auction showed that demand for quality lumber products remains intact.

The January 20 WoodRing auction produced strong results, with hardwood stringers showing particularly solid demand. The top-selling load—1 1/4" x 3 1/2" x 48" standard notch hardwood stringers—sold for $1.01 per stringer.

We were pleased to welcome several new consignors who plan to continue selling through WoodRing, with additional new consignors already scheduled for upcoming auctions. With this growing participation, the WoodRing auction is expected to keep building momentum.

Toyota - Sold! $9000

2002 John Deere - Sold! $30,000

2021 Dyna - Sold! $42,000

2006 Terex Crusher - Sold! $120,000

2015 John Deere - Sold! $195,000

Although January is typically a slower month for equipment activity, our specialists have remained very active. Because of that, we expect a strong lineup of quality inventory to come together in the months ahead.

We also encourage you to review the February Iron Ring auction, which features a substantial selection of late-model equipment. Highlights include several nearly new items and a one-owner fleet of 2018 Toyota forklifts, all selling unreserved.

Sold! We'll see you at the next auction!

Free Weekly Email for Dads

Do you ever wish a guy would come to your house, slug you in the arm, and tell you to straighten up, be a good dad, and be loving to your wife? Well, now your wildest dreams have come true, because I'll come to your home or office each week and do just that.

Now, don't be expecting a theological treatise on husbanding, because the Familyman Weekly isn't that.

Think of it more as one dad encouraging another over the backyard fence.

LOGGING Life

Stolen Timber - Part 2

By Ethan Royer

Last month, I related some instances of intentional timber theft. This month, I'll relate a couple of instances of unintentional timber theft and some lessons learned through these experiences.

Timber Spotters

Many years ago, we did custom logging for a grade mill that sometimes purchased timber through brokers, called "timber spotters." These spotters would go around looking for timber and approaching landowners about selling. If the owner was agreeable the spotter would contact the timber buyer who would come and determine the timber's worth. The mill would then subtract a generous percentage for the spotter and give the owner a bid. The mill would generally sign a contract directly with the owner since it's doubtful the spotter had an Indiana timber buyer's license. In some cases, the spotter signed a contract with the landowner and then sold the contract to a mill.

Engaging the services of spotters is risky and probably even unethical unless they have a buyer's license. It seems the amount paid to the spotter is not fair to the landowner. I know the spotter arrangement caused us a lot of grief while it lasted. We never knew exactly what the spotter told the landowner in an effort to convince him to sell trees. One time a landowner claimed that the spotter told him we would float some logs down the adjacent Wabash River instead of skidding through the property. The river log drives of the old days sound exciting, but sorry, that is one service we just don't offer! I've attempted log burling before but concluded my talents lie elsewhere.

An extremely important part of timber buying is determining if the landowner has realistic expectations about the logging process and the post-harvest appearance of the woods and correcting any misconceptions they may harbor. The spotters we had experience with did not do well at this. They usually high-graded the woods, too.

Incident No. 1

In this incident, the timber spotter arranged the job and sold it to the mill, which contracted us to harvest the timber. We assumed the mill had done due diligence in obtaining permission to harvest timber, marking property lines, and arranging a staging area. However, the "owner" who had sold the timber was in the process of purchasing the property via land contract and did not have the right to sell the timber. After the purchaser had sold the timber, he defaulted on the land contract, and the property went back to the original owner.

You can imagine the rightful owner's consternation when he arrived to discover his trees being harvested! I don't remember how far along the job was when things unraveled, but it was at least partly done. The owner was not pacified by apologies or even the Indiana protocol of reimbursing three times the value of the stolen timber. He sued. As is common with lawsuits, he sued anyone that was involved whether or not they were at fault. He sued the spotter, the mill, and us.

We shouldn't have been at fault since we were merely doing the work as the mill had instructed. Yes, I know that's a familiar refrain when something goes awry: "I just work here, I'm not responsible". Yet, it would be redundant and show a lack of trust if the subcontractor always vetted each client when the mill should have done so.

It was a difficult legal situation because we were not the only ones involved. Ideally, it could have been settled out of court, but that isn't how it went. The judge delivered his verdict: we were ordered to pay $13,000. We did not have liability insurance but had provided the mill with a liability statement that promised we would be responsible for what we do. While the mill agreed that we were not at fault, they refused to cover our fine because they reasoned that if we'd had liability insurance, our insurance would've covered it.

We paid the fine, but having to accept responsibility for their mistake damaged our trust in them, and we soon found a different mill to cut for. While it was frustrating at the time, it could've been a lot worse. And it may have been a blessing in disguise since we then found more favorable work elsewhere. Some lessons are memorable because they are expensive.

Incident No. 2

Several years ago, we logged a property for an absentee landowner to clear a path along the perimeter of the property. He hadn't shown me the property lines, but I thought I figured it out from the mapping app I use. I was unsure about the west line where there were two parallel fences. Many woods were once pastured here, and field lanes often have a fence on either side and sometimes along the property border. I studied it a bit and noticed that the outer fence lined up with the center of the road that turned in there. It seemed logical to me and I was unable to immediately contact the owner to confirm, so I went ahead and cleared the old lane, which had been cleared before but had since grown up. We finished the job and moved on, but a short time later, I received a call from the landowner.

A conservation officer had informed him we had taken trees from the neighbor lady's property. Thankfully, our client was a conservative Christian who cooperated with the investigation and shouldered part of the blame as he hadn't realized where the line was either. The owner and I met with the arbiter, a state forester (who I knew from Best Management Practices training) who appraised the logs. We had to pay the rightful owner three times the value in accordance with Indiana law. The logs were still in the field, so it was a simple matter to determine the value. There really weren't many trees taken from the lady's property (we were clearing an access lane, not cutting mature timber), and the logs were mainly small pallet logs. The total value was only $600. The forester gave the value to the neighbor, who admitted to thinking her ship was coming in and was disappointed, but she did accept it. The owner and I agreed that together we would pay her four times the value since:

- We had wronged her.
- The value was low.
- We had removed some smaller saplings that had no market value.
- It would be a way to go the second mile.

I do not know if we handled everything right, but it seemed to be satisfactory to everyone involved. I hope we showed that we were not trying to take advantage of anyone. Again, this could've turned out far worse—at least it didn't go to court.

Trespassing

Quite frankly, it is impossible to stomp around the woods as much as loggers and timber buyers do and not accidentally trespass from time to time. Around this area, most woods have old woven or barbed wire fences around them, but the old fences are rusting away to the point of being impossible to find. As mentioned above, old fences may not be a reliable indicator of a property line, although they are usually correct. Setting foot on someone's property by mistake is as inevitable as it is illegal. How can we avoid accidentally trespassing?

Delineating the property line is technically the responsibility of the landowner, but there are situations where the owner doesn't know exactly where the line is, or even worse, believes the line is somewhere it is not. We use the onX Hunt app that shows both property lines, and your real-time location.

It is not super accurate but can get you within about ten feet, which is usually close enough to find old fence, a rusted off post, or a survey pin. However, this app is not always correct about lines, which is partly what got me in trouble in the incident above. The state forester told me there is no map that is 100% accurate; the only way to confirm a property line is by consulting with the landowners on both sides of the fence or by having a survey done.

It is common to see trees growing right on the line with the fence going through the tree. As I understand it, such a tree belongs to both owners and may not be harvested without mutual consent. The income from a fence tree would be split unless the owners reach some other agreement about who owns it. I have seen two neighbors walk their property line and agree that "you own this one; I own that one" rather than sharing ownership. Good neighbor relationships smooth a multitude of problems!

I heard of a situation recently where an unscrupulous timber buyer was looking at timber on a property and noticed some desirable trees on the neighboring property. He walked across the line and marked several Walnut trees. He apparently had no trouble with tree identification. It seems every jockey has an eye for Walnut trees. He then went to the landowner and said, "I accidentally crossed the line when I was marking your neighbor's woods and saw some trees I'd like to purchase." His lie became apparent when it was discovered that he had the property line properly marked—he knew right where the line was. It might have been more believable had he marked only a few trees near the line, but that was not the case. Trespassing situations like this, not to mention high-grading immature Walnut, give the timber industry a black eye.

Takeaways

- Good communication with landowners is paramount. Logging a woods without ever meeting the owner is unsettling. While the forester or timber buyer generally has accurate details from the owner, a few details sometimes slip through the cracks. Building trust with the owner involves the logging crew asking pertinent questions about the project's goals to ensure satisfactory completion. For instance, in some circumstances I might knock over unmarked but hazardous dead trees as a favor for the owner, but if I know the owner is fond of woodpeckers, I would know to leave them. It goes a long way if the owner senses you care about his goals for his woods.
- Contracting with companies or individuals lacking integrity can criminalize us or at least make us guilty by association. While using timber spotters may not have been illegal, it was unethical. As Christians, we should realize that civil law is not our moral compass.
- My grandfather wisely advised, "As long as we continue to assume, we will continue to err." As I discovered, assuming the property line's location can be costly. It is uncomfortable to run afoul of the law even if it is an innocent mistake. As imperfect humans, we will make mistakes, but let's not allow carelessness to give credibility to the prevailing distrust toward the timber industry.
- Cooperating with law enforcement is our Christian duty, even if they treat us harshly over an innocent mistake. When I met with the arbiter, it seemed he was unnecessarily stern; but he was fair, and I was thankful for his arbitration.

As plain people, we view our land as God's land; thus, some of us may not view trespassing as a very serious offence. However, we do well to remember that aside from being illegal, it is also disrespectful to trespass on private property.

Familyman Fix-It or Finish-It February

Hey Dad,

Just want to give you a little heads up that we're moving into February, and you may not know it yet, but a few years ago I pronounced the month as Familyman Fix-it or Finish-it February. A month set aside to tackle those little jobs around the house that have been on the back burner... say for the last ten years. Now I know I'm talking to a bunch of handy, get 'r done dads (you wouldn't get this magazine if you weren't), but the idea is to focus your effort on the unfinished or broken things that bother your wife... NOT yourself. I just got a note from a fellow dad who said it so much better:

Hey Todd,

I wanted to send you a quick note for your "Fix it in February" event. Recently, I've been trying to get caught up on projects around the house. There has been an extra load of things the past few years as I've changed jobs twice. I took a position as a traveling "field engineer" for three years, which really put me behind in things as I was gone two weeks per month. Last year, one of my sons got married and then bought a house, which also took some of my time to help out. And there's always the typical stuff dads do to help their families that takes priority.

One of the projects I fixed last week was a small drawer slide in the kitchen. I think it's been broken since we bought the house 22 years ago. It wasn't broken badly, but the guide roller was worn, so sometimes it would pop out and have to be reset. My wife had asked about it, and it was always "on my list," but not a high enough priority.

After fixing the drawer, my wife has been very happy. She's mentioned it several times and has thanked me for doing the repair. It's not that it was that big of an issue, but it was a nuisance to her. I think I might have gotten more compliments about the drawer than some of the other jobs I've done over the past five years. Some of those jobs include remodeling the main bathroom, building a custom vanity for the master bathroom, and painting the outside of the house, among many others.

At first, I was kind of put off that she kept gushing on about the drawer. Then I felt ashamed that it had taken 22 years to fix a drawer that maybe took 30-45 minutes to complete. As I thought about it more, I think what made it especially important to her was the removal of the nuisance in her life. We all hate those little things that jump out and distract you and slow you down. Yes, it only took a couple of seconds to pop the drawer back in.*

If you do the math, at 22 years × 365 days × 3 meals a day (that drawer holds the pot holders, so it gets used almost every meal) × 3 seconds, that equals potentially 72,270 seconds lost to a nuisance, which comes out to about 20 hours. So I'm on a quest now to remove the nuisances that have been bothering my wife and family. Yes, they are often small and seem unimportant, but they add up. Kind of like "death by a thousand cuts."

~ A fellow dad, Dennis

Well said, Dennis... and well done. So Dad, during the month of February, let's set aside our lists... and focus on our wife's... nuisance list. It might be that last stick of trim in the kitchen, those pictures she'd like hung, the knob that continues to fall off, or the drawer slide... that doesn't slide. Do it for your wife... for your family. Do it because...

You 'da dad!

Todd Wilson

Opticom Tech Releases New Made-in-USA CC02 Industrial Camera

BATTLE CREEK, MICH. — Opticom Tech, a leader in industrial video monitoring solutions, announced the release of its updated CC02 industrial camera, featuring an even more rugged anodized coating, a built-in vibration mount, and multiple lens options. The camera is now made in the United States.

"We've been designing, prototyping, and testing this CC02 camera with our U.S. manufacturing partner for over 18 months," said Heidi Schmidt, global sales manager for Opticom Tech. "We were able to retain, and even enhance, the quality and durability that the CC02 is known for while adding features, bringing manufacturing to North America, and maintaining a similar price point."

Prototypes of the camera were tested in some of the harshest environments, including sawmills, where cameras must withstand vibration, heat, dust, debris, and even direct hits from boards and logs. The new anodized coating provides increased resistance to corrosion and wear, helping ensure long-lasting performance in extreme conditions.

A built-in vibration mount now comes standard instead of being offered as an optional accessory. This change simplifies installation, improves image stability in high-vibration settings, and helps extend product life. All lens options remain available to fit specific monitoring applications, keeping the CC02 as versatile as ever.

"This is the same CC02 camera our customers know and love—just made in the U.S. and tougher than ever," Schmidt said.

The new Made-in-the-USA CC02 camera is now available to order through Opticom Tech and its distributor network. For more information, visit www.opticomtech.com.

Getting Ready for Tax Season: A Practical Look for Sawmill Owners

For many sawmill owners, tax season has a way of sneaking up. One day you're trying to keep logs moving through the mill, and the next day your accountant is asking questions you wish you had thought about a few months earlier. The truth is, good tax prep for a sawmill doesn't start in March. It starts well before the year ends.

Sawmills are unique businesses. There's a lot of money tied up in equipment, buildings, inventory, and repairs. Add in fuel, trucking, custom work, and outside log purchases, and things can get complicated in a hurry. That's why staying organized throughout the year can make tax season far less stressful.

One of the biggest areas that affects taxes is equipment. New purchases, upgrades, and major repairs all matter, but they're not treated the same. Something as simple as whether a cost is considered a repair or an improvement can change how it shows up on your return. Keeping clear notes and invoices helps your accountant make the right call instead of guessing later.

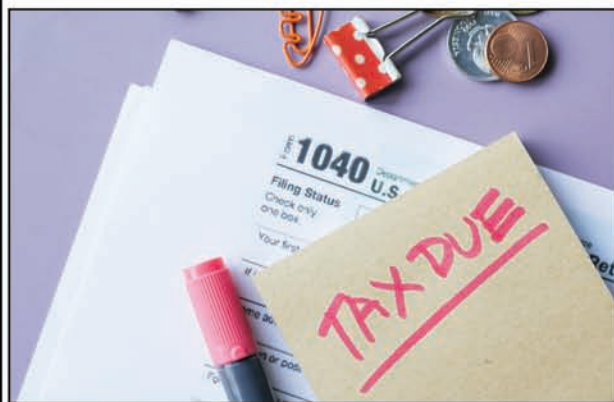

Inventory is another area that often gets overlooked. Logs on the ground, lumber in the yard, and even parts on the shelf can factor into year-end numbers. Taking a little time to know what you have on hand near the end of the year can save confusion later. It doesn't need to be perfect—just reasonable and consistent.

Expenses like fuel, trucking, and outside services add up fast in a sawmill operation. Having those records in one place instead of scattered across glove boxes and shop desks makes a big difference. A simple folder or envelope system, paper or digital, can go a long way.

Many sawmill owners also find it helpful to talk with their accountant before the year is over, not after. A short conversation in the fall can help with timing decisions—whether it makes sense to buy equipment now or wait, finish a project this year or push it into the next, or handle income and expenses more evenly.

Tax prep will probably never be anyone's favorite part of running a sawmill. But a little planning, a bit of organization, and clear communication can turn it from a scramble into a manageable task. That leaves more time and energy for what matters most—keeping the mill running and the crew working.

Buyer agrees to pay the Winning Bid plus the applicable Buyer’s Premium.

6. Access to Auction Site. Participants assume all risks associated with their presence at the Auction Site or their access to the online bidding platform utilized by Auctioneer. Any person may be denied access to the Auction, the Auction Site, and the online bidding platform utilized by Auctioneer, and may be removed at Auctioneer’s discretion.

- 10.4. Online Bidding Increments. Auctioneer may establish bid increments, and may modify or change bid increments, in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.
- 10.5. Records of Online Activity. Absent clerical errors, Auctioneer's records will be deemed final and conclusive.
- 10.6. Technology Disruptions. Auctioneer will not be responsible for technology disruptions, errors, or failures (including disruptions to bidding or the failure to execute, recognize, or record online bids), whether caused by (i) loss of connectivity, breakdown, disruption, or failure of the Online Auction Platform, (ii) breakdown, disruption, or failure of a Bidder's internet connection, computer, or system, (iii) viruses or software malfunction, or (iv) otherwise. Auctioneer may, but will not be required to, continue, suspend, delay, extend, reschedule, or close the Auction because of disruptions caused by technology failures, even after bidding has commenced.
- 10.7. Failures by Online Auction Platform Provider and its Affiliates or Contractors. Auctioneer may use an Online Auction Platform Provider to facilitate the Auction. Under no circumstances will Auctioneer be liable for any failure of the Online Auction Platform Provider to perform all or any of its obligations, or for the failure of any affiliates, employees, agents, representatives, or contractors of the Online Auction Platform Provider to perform their obligations.
- 10.8. Auto Extend Feature. Any Online Bidding Period may include an auto extend feature. This means that, if an online bid is entered within a set time period approaching the end of the established Online Bidding Period, the Online Bidding Period will automatically be extended for an additional amount of time in increments established by Auctioneer, and will continue to be so extended until there is a set period of time that lapses during which no online bids are received, after which bidding will close.
- 10.9. Disclaimer. Auctioneer makes no representations or warranties, and disclaims any representations or warranties, (i) that the Online Auction Platform or any related website or technology will be uninterrupted, error free or virus free, (ii) as to the results that may be obtained by using the Online Auction Platform or any related website or technology, or (iii) as to the accuracy, completeness, reliability, security, or current nature of the Online Auction Platform or any related website technology.
- 10.10. Responsibility for Online Bids. If a Winning Bid is sent to Auctioneer from the computer of a Registered Bidder, and is, thereafter, confirmed by Seller, such Registered Bidder will be the Buyer.
- 10.11. No Reduction or Retraction of Online Bids. Online bids may not be reduced or retracted.
- 10.12. Competing Online and Onsite Bids. In the event of contemporaneously made online and onsite bids, Auctioneer will determine which bid is the successful bid, and may, in Auctioneer's discretion, reopen the bidding.
- 10.13. Winning Bidders Subject to Certification by Auctioneer. The final determination of the Winning Bidder is subject to certification by Auctioneer; and any email or electronic message (whether generated manually or automatically) is subject to such certification.
11. Absentee Bids; Remote Bidding. In Auctioneer's discretion, Auctioneer may receive Absentee Bids and/or bids tendered by remote Bidders (whether telephonically or otherwise). All prebids and maxbids placed online are considered absentee bids. Auctioneer pledges complete integrity in the treatment of absentee bids and absentee bids may be initiated and advanced in accordance with Auctioneer's policies and procedures. Auctioneer has the right to initiate any absentee bids at 25% to 50% of their maximum amount. Auctioneer will make reasonable efforts to execute Absentee Bids, but Auctioneer will have no liability to any Absentee Bidder for the failure to execute any Absentee Bids for any reason whatsoever. Each Absentee Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Property may be sold to another Bidder for the maximum amount of the Absentee Bid based on a bidding sequence that causes another Bidder to reach such amount first. If the execution of an Absentee Bid at its maximum amount would require Auctioneer to accept a bid that is less than a full bidding increment, Auctioneer has the sole and absolute discretion to accept or reject such bid. An Absentee Bidder may provide instructions to the Auctioneer to advance the bid by one or more bidding increments after the maximum amount of the Absentee Bid is, or would be, reached. Auctioneer acts only as the agent of the Seller, and the receipt and/or execution of Absentee Bids will not create an agency relationship between Auctioneer and any Absentee Bidder.
12. Bid Increments. Bid increments are established and controlled by Auctioneer, and may be adjusted or modified in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.
13. Registered Bidders Responsible for Bids Placed on Bidder Number. Each Registered Bidder is responsible for the Bidder Number issued to such Registered Bidder. Auctioneer is not responsible for monitoring or policing the use of Bidder Numbers, and each Registered Bidder is responsible for all bids made on the Bidder Number issued to such Registered Bidder even if the Registered Bidder claims that the Bidder Number was lost, stolen, or misappropriated, unless notice of a lost, stolen, or misappropriated Bidder Number was provided to Auctioneer prior to an unauthorized bid being made. Absent a clerical error, Auctioneer's recording of bids against a Bidder Number will be conclusive as to the making of such bid by, or on behalf of, the Registered Bidder.
14. Withdrawal of Property. Auctioneer has the absolute right to withdraw any Property from the Auction prior to the Fall of the Hammer, unless the Property is explicitly provided that the Property is being sold at an Absolute Auction.
15. Winning Bid; Buyer. Pursuant to these Bidder Terms, the Bidder making the Winning Bid for any Lot of Personal Property will be the Buyer of such Property.
16. All Property Sold "AS IS", "WHERE IS", and "WITH ALL FAULTS". ALL PROPERTY IS BEING OFFERED AND SOLD IN ITS AS IS/WHERE IS CONDITION AT THE TIME OF THE AUCTION, WITH ALL FAULTS, INCLUDING ANY HIDDEN DEFECTS OF ANY NATURE. NO STATEMENT ANYWHERE, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING VERBAL STATEMENTS MADE BY AUCTIONEER, WILL BE DEEMED A WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION BY AUCTIONEER OR SELLER. WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AUTHENTICITY,

ORIGIN, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED. EACH BIDDER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT HE, SHE, OR IT CANNOT RELY, AND HAS NOT RELIED, ON ANY REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, OR GUARANTY MADE BY THE SELLER OR ANYONE ACTING AS AGENT OF THE SELLER, ORALLY OR IN WRITING, ABOUT THE PROPERTY, OR ANY OF IT. BY BIDDING, EACH BIDDER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT SUCH BIDDER HAS HAD A FULL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITY TO INSPECT THE PROPERTY, AND IS RELYING SOLELY ON, OR HAS WAIVED, SUCH BIDDER'S INSPECTION AND INVESTIGATION (i) IN DETERMINING WHETHER TO BID, (ii) IN DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF A BID, AND (iii) IN BIDDING.

17. Announcements. Subject to the limitation set forth in these Bidder Terms, all terms and conditions and other announcements made by Auctioneer on the day of the Auction are binding and take precedence over any advertisements or listings.
18. Bidder's Inspection. By bidding, each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that such Bidder has had a full and fair opportunity to inspect the Property, and is relying solely on, or has waived, such Bidder's inspection and investigation (i) in determining whether to bid, (ii) in determining the amount of a bid, and (iii) in bidding. Bidder accepts any and all risks associated with the purchase and/or use of the Property. Bidder agrees to defend, hold harmless, indemnify, and protect both Auctioneer and Seller from any all claims of injury arising out of or relating to the purchase or use of the Property.
19. Description of Property. Unless otherwise expressly stated otherwise in writing, any description of Property is based solely on visual impression, and is given solely for identification purposes, and does not create any warranty, expressed or implied, or representation by Auctioneer.
20. Contract of Sale for Personal Property. By operation of these Terms, no additional or further writing will be required to evidence the existence of a contract of sale for any Personal Property Knocked-Down at the Auction regardless of the Purchase Price, and these Bidder Terms, together with Auctioneer's clerking sheets or other physical or digital notation identifying the Lot, the Hammer Price, and the Buyer, will be conclusive evidence as to the terms of the sale. These Bidder Terms will be incorporated into the contract between each Buyer and Seller.
21. Bidding by or on Behalf of Seller. At an Absolute Auction there is no Seller bidding. The Seller or anyone acting on the Seller's behalf will not bid (directly or indirectly) on any Property put up at Absolute Auction. At a Reserve Auction, the Seller or anyone acting on the Seller's behalf will not bid (directly or indirectly) on any Property put up at Reserve Auction, unless the Auctioneer announces and discloses that the Seller (or someone on behalf of the Seller) will be bidding at the Auction.
22. Conduct of the Auction. Auctioneer will regulate all matters relating to the conduct of the Auction and Auctioneer's decisions will be final and binding. Auctioneer will have control over bidding, and Auctioneer will resolve any and all disputes. If (i) a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid or while bidding is otherwise being terminated, or (ii) promptly after the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding Auctioneer is made aware of a bid that was unnoticed prior to the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding, and it is demonstrated to Auctioneer's satisfaction that such bid was, in fact, timely made, or (iii) promptly after the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding Auctioneer is made aware that Auctioneer and a bid assistant or ringman, or multiple bid assistants or ringmen, have acknowledged bids in the same amount bid from different bidders, or (iv) some other bid dispute arises, Auctioneer may, in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion, reopen the bidding (but will not be required to). Any contract formed with the Fall of the Hammer will be subject to the conditions set forth in this Section. If bidding is reopened pursuant to this Section, the bid recognized by Auctioneer prior to the reopening of the bidding will be held, and may not be retracted, and, if no further bids are received, such bid will be the Winning Bid.
23. Motor Vehicles and Equipment. Any and all motor vehicles and motorized equipment (including, without being limited to, automobiles, trucks, vans, recreational vehicles, motor cycles, motor scooters, tractors, earth moving equipment and other heavy equipment) must be paid in full prior to removal from the Auction Site; and, if any vehicles or equipment is paid for with a check, the vehicle or equipment will not be released unless and until the check clears the drawee bank and the funds have been received by Auctioneer.
24. All Sales Final. ALL SALES ARE FINAL. NO REFUNDS OR RETURNS.
25. Sales Tax. Subject to applicable exemptions, if any, each Buyer is responsible for the payment of sales tax for each Lot Knocked-Down at the Auction, which sales tax will be collected by Auctioneer at the time payment is made.
26. Payment. All Personal Property must be paid for in-full by onsite Buyers on the day of the Auction, at or before the conclusion of the Auction, and before any Property is removed from the Auction Site by or on behalf of the Buyer. Online purchases are due upon receipt of your invoice. Onsite purchases may be paid in cash or approved check, and, when authorized by the Seller and made available by Auctioneer, by credit card or debit card. Cash payments totaling Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or more will not be accepted. If onsite bidders wish to send a wire, they must present a bank letter of credit (with limit stated equal to or higher than the amount owed by bidder) and wire must be sent no later than one business day after the auction. Online purchases must be paid by credit card or approved check; provided, however, that any online purchases in excess of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) must be paid by wire transfer or certified funds unless other arrangements are made with Auctioneer in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.
27. Wire Transfer Payments. Buyer shall obtain verbal verification of all bank account information from Bright Star Auctions prior to initiating transfer. Except as otherwise provided by law, we shall not be liable for any loss or damage due to misplaced, unauthorized or fraudulent fund transfers.

28. ACH/eCheck Payments. By providing account information to Bright Star Auctions, buyer gives permission for Bright Star Auctions to retain payment information on file and represents they are the authorized account holder. Upon authorization to collect payment from Buyer's account and prior to transfer, Buyer is responsible to notify their financial institution of the impending transaction. Buyer agrees to notify Bright Star Auctions of any changes in account information.
29. Returned Checks. Any checks that are returned unpaid will be subject to a returned check fee in the amount of Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($50.00). In addition to the foregoing, Auctioneer will be entitled to recover, from the issuer of a returned check, all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, for the collection of payment made in the form of a check that has been returned unpaid.
30. No Stop Payment Orders or Credit Card Chargebacks. Each Bidder agrees that such Bidder will not, under any circumstances, (i) issue a stop payment order with respect to any checks issued at or in connection with the Auction, or (ii) initiate a credit card chargeback with respect to any purchases at the Auction. Each Bidder further agrees that if, in violation of these Terms, a stop payment order is issued or a credit card chargeback is initiated, these Terms will be conclusive evidence of the Bidder's (i) waiver of any rights to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback, and (ii) agreement not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback; and each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that on Auctioneer's presentation of these Terms to the bank, credit card company, or other financial institution against which a check was drawn or that issued the credit card on which charges were made, such bank, credit card company, or other financial institution will reverse any stop-payment order and/or deny any credit card chargeback, and will re-credit all amounts to or for the account of Auctioneer. If, in violation of these Terms, a Bidder issues a stop payment order or initiates a credit card chargeback, such Bidder, even if successful, will remain liable for all purchases made at the Auction, and will be responsible for all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by or on behalf of Auctioneer and/or Seller in challenging the stop payment order or credit card chargeback and in collecting payment. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that the covenant not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback is a condition to the issuance of a Bidder Number to such Bidder, and is being made as an inducement for Auctioneer to accept such Bidder's Bidder Registration and to issue a Bidder Number. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Auctioneer is relying on the covenant not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback in accepting such Bidder's Bidder Registration and in issuing a Bidder Number.
31. Pick-up and Removal; Shipping. Each Buyer is responsible for removal of Lots purchased at the Auction, including shipping to remote Buyers. Pick-up and removal dates and times will be as posted on Auctioneer's website or announced at the Auction. Unless otherwise agreed, each Buyer is solely responsible for the disassembly, removal, shipping, and transportation of each Lot purchased by such Buyer. Tools, packing material, and/or assistance will not be supplied at Pickup, so Buyer must plan accordingly. Disassembly and removal shall be done in a quiet and workmanlike manner, and each Buyer, in making its bid, shall thereby indemnify and hold harmless both Auctioneer and Seller against any and all damage caused by the acts of the Buyer, or such Buyer's employees, agents, representatives, or independent contractors in connection with the Pickup. Any and all damages to the Pickup site, including, without being limited to damages to land or buildings, caused by a Buyer or by an employee, agent, representative, or independent contractor of a Buyer, will be repaired by, or at the expense of, such Buyer to the satisfaction of Auctioneer and Seller. Each Buyer must show a copy of the invoice (digital or hard copy) and government-issued photo identification before Lots will be released. No Buyer shall bring pets or young children to the Pickup, as the movement of Lots presents an extremely high-risk environment that could result in injury or death.
32. Insurance. Any work performed by Purchaser(s) or Purchaser Representative (including sub-contractors) shall be insured and provide proof of coverage against all claims for injuries against persons or damages to property which may arise from or in connection with the removal of items or equipment. Insurance coverage requirements are as follows: General Liability $1,000,000/$2,000,000 and Worker's Compensation $1,000,000 or as required by State Law. Seller shall be listed as additionally insured, if required.
33. Abandoned Items. Any Lots not paid in full, not picked up and removed in the time provided (but, under any circumstances, within thirty (30) days after the Auction), or for which payment has not cleared (within five (5) days after the Auction), will be considered abandoned and may be offered for sale at a later auction or subject to other disposition. Such abandonment does not, however, relieve the Buyer or the Buyer's obligation to make payment in full. Any payments made by or on behalf of a Buyer are non-refundable, and Buyers will remain responsible for the full purchase price of all Lots sold to them. In addition, Buyer's bidding privileges may be suspended at future auctions.
34. Claims. With respect to Lots removed from the Auction Site by or on behalf of a Buyer, no claims or returns will be allowed and no claim will be allowed for adjustments or rescission of any sales based on the failure of a Lot to correspond with any standard and/or expectation of the Buyer.
35. Risk of Loss for Personal Property. Risk of loss with respect to Personal Property passes to the Buyer with the Fall of the Hammer. Neither Auctioneer nor Seller will be liable for any loss or damage to a Lot after such Lot is sold at the Auction, other than as may be directly and solely caused by Auctioneer's negligence, gross negligence, or intentional misconduct in handling and safeguarding the Lot while in Auctioneer's sole and exclusive possession.
36. Buyer's Remedies; Bidders/Buyers Not Entitled to Incidental or Consequential Damages. To the extent that any Bidder or Buyer may be entitled to damages or remedies, the sole and exclusive remedy available to Bidders and Buyers is a return of the Purchase Price actually paid. Under no circumstances will Auctioneer or the Seller be liable for incidental or consequential damages, including, without being limited to lost profits or reduced productivity. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that no Bidder or Buyer is entitled to specific performance or other equitable relief.
37. Seller's Remedies. If any Buyer breached such Buyer's obligations under these Terms or under a sale contract with the Seller of Property sold at the Auction, in addition to all other legal and equitable remedies, such property may be resold and the breaching Buyer will be responsible for any and all damages, including any deficiency or reduction in the Purchase Price, along with incidental damages.

38. Indemnification. Each Bidder agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Auctioneer and Seller harmless from any current or future claim regarding the Auction or the Property, including, without being limited to, fitness, use, damage, safety, or injuries to persons or property.
39. Private Sale. No Participant or Registered Bidder may offer to enter into a Private Sale for the purchase of any of the Property prior to, during, or after the Auction. If any of the Property is not Knocked Down at the Auction and Bidder enters into an agreement to buy (i) any of the Personal Property from the Seller within ten (10) days after the Auction, and/or (ii) any of the Real Property within ninety (90) days after the Auction, Bidder shall pay to Auctioneer an amount equal to Auctioneer's full commission and Buyer's Premium.
40. Waiver. Certain provisions of these Bidder Terms are for the exclusive benefit of Auctioneer and/or Seller(s). Such provisions, including, without being limited to, Bidder registration and qualification requirements, deposit and payment terms (including the method, form, and timing of payment), removal and delivery terms, and Property inspection terms), do not create, and will not be deemed to create, any benefits or rights in favor of any other persons, including competing Bidders, and may not be enforced by any other persons. Either globally or on a case by case basis Auctioneer and/or Seller may (but will not be required to) waive any provisions of these Terms that are intended for the benefit of Auctioneer and/or Seller.
41. Compliance with the Law. Bidder shall not engage in any illegal conduct on the Auction Site and shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws. Bid pooling occurs when Bidders collude to regulate, and artificially suppress, bidding in an effort to reduce the Hammer Price. Anyone participating in bid pooling will be removed from the Auction Site and referred for prosecution. Theft is a serious offense, and, if discovered, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Instances of theft will result in immediate termination of bidding and removal from the Auction Site.
42. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial. These Bidder Terms will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana, including its statutes of limitations, but without regard to its rules governing conflict of laws. All claims, disputes, and other matters between the parties will be brought in the state or federal courts sitting in and for Elkhart County, Indiana, which courts will have exclusive jurisdiction, and will be the exclusive venue, for any and all such claims, disputes, and other matters. By submitting a Bidder Registration and accepting a Bidder Number each Registered Bidder irrevocably and unconditionally (i) agrees that any claim or suit relating to these Bidder Terms, or the transactions contemplated hereby, will be brought in the state or federal courts sitting in and for Elkhart County, Indiana.; (ii) consents to the jurisdiction of such courts for any such claim, suit or cause of action; (iii) waives any objection that such party may have to the laying of venue of any such claim, suit or cause of action in such courts; and (iv) waives any objection to the bringing of such claim, suit or cause of action in such courts on the grounds of forum non conveniens. Each Bidder, Buyer, and other Participants waive the right to a jury trial.
43. Attorneys' Fees. If any Participant breaches such Participant's obligations under these Terms, Auctioneer and/or Seller will be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing their rights.

I highly recommend Bright Star. They are all very professional and easy to work with. They were very organized when they came to catalog all my equipment.
