From the Editor

Monday, Nov 24, 2025

Yesterday we hosted church services at our house. I've come to enjoy it more each time. It's always interesting to see who walks through the door and brightens your day. We hosted for the neighbors this week, and in two weeks it will be our turn again. The forecast is calling for colder temps and maybe some snow, so we'll see what that brings.

A few changes came up after I designed the cover for this issue. The 12/9 IronRing auction has been cancelled because of the end of the year one now set for 12/31. The equipment that had been listed for 12/9 has been moved into a new liquidation auction on 12/16 called Coastal Wood & Saw.

Also note that McKay Gross has been split into two rings, with the second ring starting at 10 AM and selling smalls. The phone bidding number for ring 2 is listed on the phone bidding instructions page on the inside back cover. Be sure to look over the McKay auction — it might end up being the forestry auction of the year with 13 knucklebooms, 5 dozers, 6 skidders, and more at the time of this writing.

This is your reminder to check your expiration date. We only have one more issue mailing out this year, scheduled for December 19. The next book will go out December 29 and will include the January auctions. If your expiration date says 12/31/25, it's time to renew!

A new addition in this issue is the Logging Life article from local logger Ethan Royer. These originally ran in PCBE, so some of you may have seen them before, but we'll be running one article per month from Ethan. I enjoy reading stories from industry authors sharing their experiences.

We're also looking for more authors. If writing interests you even a little, we'd love to hear from you. Don't worry about penmanship or punctuation — we can clean that up on our end, and we may even be willing to pay a bit for good articles.

By the time this reaches you, Thanksgiving will have passed. Let's remember to "Rejoice evermore, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." — 1 Thess. 5:16-18

Wishing you and your family a wonderful holiday season. Have you started thinking about Christmas presents yet?

Until next time,

Equipment Market Report

As we move deeper into the final stretch of the year, the auction calendar has stayed busy and the variety of equipment moving across the block has been impressive. November brought a mix of strong openings, steady bidding, and a few surprises along the way. Here's a look at how the recent auctions unfolded.

2022 Wood-Mizer L150 - Sold for $45,000

2016 Bells - Sold for $42,500

The November Iron Ring auction opened with strong momentum. Skid steers and telehandlers all found new owners, and the portable sawmills drew steady interest. The 2022 Wood-Mizer brought $45,000, while the 2015 Baker portable band mill followed close behind at $35,000. A few standout pieces helped set the pace early, including the 2016 Bells 4000 firewood processor at $42,500 and the Multi-Tech firewood tumbler at $10,000.

As the day went on, the energy shifted a bit. A dealer from North Carolina consigned a large batch of new Bobcat equipment. Expectations and reserves were set a bit too high, and none of those items sold on auction day. The trucks and the livestock trailer didn't meet the reserves either, with the current truck market being a bit weak across the industry.

On November 13th, the Coomer & Sons auction at Roy Scott Parkway Plant focused on liquidating the complete plant. The sawmill and pallet equipment—along with several cut-up lines—struggled to attract bidders, but the rolling stock didn't disappoint. Well-kept, one-owner equipment always seems to tell its own story, and the market rewarded it.

Even with the tougher going on the sawmill side, the auction still met the seller's expectations.

2015 Cat - Sold! $32,500

Go Fast Trimmer - Sold! $30,000

2013 Cat - Sold! $31,000

2016 Manitou- Sold! $25,000

2006 Cat 517 - Sold! $95,000

The crew headed to Rockville, Indiana the next day for the Midwest Equipment Auction, where the lineup featured a deep bench of quality consignments. The auction kicked off with several sharp track machines, including a 2018 Kubota track skid steer that sold for $40,000. From there, the numbers stayed strong: a 2016 Manitou all-terrain forklift at $25,000, a 2006 Cat 517 grapple dozer at $95,000, a 2015 John Deere 450J dozer at $55,000, and a 1989 Cat D4 high-track at $45,000.

Buyers also showed plenty of interest in forestry equipment, with the 2003 TimberPro forwarder selling for $77,500 and the 2015 John Deere 437D knuckleboom bringing $55,000. Even the 2006 Pendu automatic slab saw drew attention at $10,000. It was a strong day overall, and many sellers went home pleased.

The November 18th lumber auction wrapped up the month on a high note. Prices stayed steady from start to finish. Most of the offering was softwood—mainly Aspen—with only two loads of hardwood in the mix. Even so, hardwood demand remained strong and brought plenty of interest.

Looking ahead, the next six weeks will bring several of the season's biggest auctions, with a large amount of high-quality equipment hitting the open market. We look forward to seeing everyone at the upcoming events!

Don't miss the McKay Gross Sawmill Auction in this book! This auction has lots of quality, well maintained sawmill equipment and rolling stock, plus lots of quality consignments! It'll be a big one!

Sold! We'll see you at the next auction!

Yoder Lumber: From Portable Sawmill to Strategic Focus

By Loren Beachy, President, Bright Star Auctions

In the heart of Ohio's Amish country, horse-drawn buggies still share the roads with semi-trucks hauling hardwood lumber. Both tend to have the right-of-way over impatient car drivers—though only one of them honks back. Here sits a company mastering the art of strategic evolution. Yoder Lumber's story spans eight decades, but perhaps no chapter has been more important than the recent decisions positioning this third-generation family business for long-term success.

It started in 1944 when John J. Yoder fired up a portable sawmill, cutting lumber for local farmers. That modest beginning in Holmes County would grow into something far bigger. But the essence remained the same—a family business built on hard work, integrity, and an understanding of wood that runs as deep as the roots of the Appalachian hardwoods they process.

By the mid-1950s, John had built a permanent sawmill at their Charm location. The company began its steady march toward becoming a regional force. The expansion continued through the decades: purchasing their Berlin facility around 1980, adding a pallet shop in the late 1990s, and eventually buying "the Buckhorn Yard" in Millersburg in 1999.

Today, Trent Yoder works alongside his brother Nathan and cousins Tony, Ryan, and Craig—the third generation steering this family business. With about 80 employees at Berlin headquarters, 60 at Buckhorn, and 10 at their Rolling Ridge log merchandising yard in West Virginia, Yoder Lumber has grown far beyond John's original portable sawmill.

But it's what happened in 2010 and the years following that truly shows how a family business can make difficult strategic decisions while keeping their core values and commitment to their people.

The Sawmill Chapter Closes

In 2010, Yoder Lumber built a state-of-the-art sawmill at Buckhorn. That investment in their Buckhorn facility was a major commitment to the sawmilling business that had been the company's foundation for over six decades.

After producing quality lumber for decades at the Charm mill and for a dozen years at Buckhorn, however, the lumber industry's realities stepped in—and they weren't particularly polite about it. Volatile timber costs combined with increasingly challenging market conditions forced difficult decisions. By 2020 the older Charm sawmill was shut down, its equipment auctioned off by Bright Star Auctions in 2021.

The state-of-the-art Buckhorn facility continued producing for several more years, then in early 2025 Yoder Lumber elected to have Bright Star conduct an auction for that sawmill equipment as well. The whole process of deciding to shut down a portion of your business can be likened to selling the home farm. "You've got to make sure you run every number," Trent says. "And we probably hung on longer than we should have, as far as with the way the industry was going."

These weren't decisions made lightly. The Yoder family understood their company's survival depended on adapting to market realities while maintaining their commitment to employees and customers.

Strategic Redirection

What sets Yoder Lumber apart is how they handled this transition. Rather than simply closing facilities and cutting losses, they redirected their focus toward areas where they could add the most value—secondary manufacturing and lumber concentration services. Today, Yoder Lumber's secondary manufacturing includes stair treads, table tops, institutional furniture parts, cabinet door components, and molding. "Currently, the stair parts industry is our focus," Trent notes. "So that's tread, riser, handrail, parts like that."

They've also found success in commercial millwork, working with general contractors on projects from office complexes to restaurant chains. When Panera Bread or Starbucks needs hardwood elements for their locations, there's a good chance some components came through Yoder Lumber's facilities. Perhaps just as importantly, they've positioned themselves as lumber concentrators, buying from local sawmills rather than competing with them for timber. "There is ample supply of green lumber currently in the local area," Trent explains. "So instead of fighting for timber, we figured we'd just get out of the way and work with the sawmills instead of fighting over the timber."

This blue ocean strategy has allowed them to maintain relationships throughout the industry while focusing on what they do best—processing, drying, and delivering quality hardwood lumber to customers from Maine to California, and even internationally to China and Vietnam. They're no longer competing with sawmills for timber the way siblings compete for the last piece of pie at Thanksgiving—now they're all at the same table.

The Bright Star Solution

When it came time to liquidate their sawmill equipment, Yoder Lumber faced a crucial decision. They needed more than just an auctioneer with a gavel and a good voice. They needed a partner who understood the industry—someone who could maximize returns while executing the process with professionalism and integrity matching their company values. They found that comprehensive solution in Bright Star Auctions.

"The honesty and integrity is one thing I definitely would say is a great experience," Trent says about their experience with the two auctions. "Just the coverage that Bright Star has for the auction process. There are multiple platforms available for participation, including comprehensive marketing, online channels, phone bidding, and a live component."

The relationship began with the Charm location equipment in 2021. What impressed the Yoder team wasn't just the results, but the approach. Bright Star's multi-platform strategy—combining online bidding, phone bidding, and traditional live auction elements—aligned perfectly with Yoder Lumber's global customer base.

When the Buckhorn auction finally took place on April 4th, 2025, the timing couldn't have been more dramatic. Just two days before, President Trump had rolled out his "Liberation Day" tariffs, sending shockwaves through the industry. You could practically hear sawmill owners across America simultaneously reaching for their antacids. Despite the uncertainty, when auction day arrived, buyers were in the room, online, and on the phones—all appreciating the quality of equipment Yoder Lumber had maintained.

Yoder and Bright Star were extremely gratified by the results. An HMC log trough sold for $55,000. An MDI metal detector rang the bell at $60,000. The Cleereman mill entirety brought $132,500. The Salem resaw and PHL runaround commanded $150,000, while the McDonough wiggle box board edger with the USNR scanner went for $170,000. The crown jewel of the auction—the HMC trim saw and grading line entirety—sold for $200,000. Much of Yoder Lumber's conveyor equipment was also well appreciated for its quality.

"You guys were one of the first ones that really focused on the online side of it, as far as the sawmill auctioning side," Trent recalls. "That was a big push for us, because I saw that as a benefit for sure. Also the call-in option enables people who can't visit in person, or might not make large purchases, to still occasionally buy items." The success of both auctions proved crucial to Yoder Lumber's strategic transformation. The quick, clean liquidations meant valuable real estate could be repurposed for other strategic uses. No more idle equipment taking up space like expensive lawn ornaments.

Industry Knowledge Matters

What particularly impressed Trent was the depth of industry knowledge Bright Star brought to the process, combined with their ability to deliver market value efficiently. "The knowledge of your team is very good too, and that's really important for our industry," he notes. "Mose on your cataloging team was particularly impressive. You have to have the knowledge to be able to talk to people and know the equipment, or you're not going to go far trying to sell stuff."

Eugene Hochstetler, Bright Star's Senior Equipment Specialist who handled much of the coordination, brought exactly that combination of technical knowledge, auction expertise, and execution capability the situation required.

Employee-First Philosophy

Throughout these transitions, Yoder Lumber maintained something increasingly rare in modern business: genuine commitment to their employees. When facilities closed, nobody was simply let go. "We didn't fire anybody," Trent explains. "We offered positions to all our employees." This approach reflects the family's values and their understanding that employees aren't just line items on a balance sheet. "We try not to fire anybody. We try to find a position for them. But at the same time, we also know that they won't always stick around. I'd rather give them a position so they can go find what they want to do, instead of just one day saying you don't work here anymore."

Looking Forward

Yoder Lumber now operates from a strong position, thanks to a diversified customer base that avoids reliance on a single client—a shift from their past when one customer accounted for 90% of production for 15–20 years. "When that customer slowed down, it hurt," Trent recalls. "When they slowed down 10%, that meant we didn't need 10% of our employees. We were doing so much volume. So, diversifying has made a big difference just from a stability of workflow standpoint."

The company now serves customers from Maine to California and internationally, while maintaining local service capability. If a nearby customer needs 300 board feet of specific material, Yoder Lumber can split it off from warehouse inventory and deliver it.

A Foundation for the Future

From John Yoder's portable sawmill in 1944 to today's sophisticated secondary manufacturing operation, Yoder Lumber has demonstrated that family businesses can evolve successfully without losing their essential character. The partnership with Bright Star Auctions freed up significant real estate and capital that enabled them to make necessary transitions professionally and profitably, while focusing their energy and resources on the opportunities that best match their capabilities.

As Trent puts it, "I'd rather not have had to do the auctions, but to be a viable business down the road for the rest of our company, it was what we needed to do."

That kind of honest assessment, combined with decisive action and strong partnerships, has positioned Yoder Lumber not just to survive industry changes, but to thrive in them. Eighty years after John Yoder started with a portable sawmill, his family business continues to build its future on the same foundation of quality work, fair dealing, and strategic thinking that has served them well through eight decades of changing markets.

The Greatest Victories Are Won Together

At just 19 years old, LeBron James received the ultimate honor — a spot on the 2004 U.S. Olympic basketball team. Fresh off his rookie NBA season, he was the youngest player ever selected, joining legends like Tim Duncan, Allen Iverson, and Dwyane Wade. The world beckoned, and LeBron answered, believing his raw talent would be enough to dominate on the global stage.

They were NBA royalty entering a street basketball game, or so they thought. We'll whip 'em up and serve 'em on humble pie.

August 15, 2004 — the unthinkable happened. Puerto Rico defeated Team USA 92–73. Young LeBron watched in disbelief as his teammates played isolation basketball while Puerto Rico moved the ball with precision. Individual brilliance crumbled against collective purpose.

Team USA lacked veteran leadership. There was no Magic Johnson or Michael Jordan to guide them. Coach Larry Brown tried his best to instill discipline, but egos clashed. Players complained, "I should be playing longer," "I could have made that shot," "Give me the ball."

The losses mounted. Lithuania exposed its defensive weaknesses. Then came the crushing blow — Argentina outplayed them in the semifinals. LeBron watched them orchestrate beautiful team basketball while the Americans played like strangers.

Is your company beautifully orchestrating together, or are you playing like strangers? What about your family, your school, and your church? Are you and your wife strangers living under the same roof? Or are you collaborating, working together, moving forward together as a team?

Individual greatness means nothing without team chemistry. The international players weren't more talented — they were more connected, more selfless, more committed to something bigger than personal glory. The bronze medal became the most valuable lesson. It taught that true greatness comes not from individual dominance but from elevating others. The boy who went to Athens seeking glory returned as a man who understood that the greatest victories are won together.

In Five Dysfunctions of a Team, Pat Lencioni tells us, "Not finance. Not strategy. Not technology. It is teamwork that remains the ultimate competitive advantage, both because it is so powerful and so rare." Another guru once said, "If you can get all the people in an organization rowing in the same direction, you can dominate any industry in any market, against any competition at any time."

Successful teamwork is not about mastering subtle, sophisticated theories, but rather about embracing common sense with uncommon levels of discipline and persistence. Ironically, teams succeed because they are exceedingly human. By acknowledging the imperfections of their humanity, members of functional teams overcome the natural tendencies that make teamwork so elusive. — Pat Lencioni

Logging Life - Operation Overview

By Ethan Royer

As I begin this logging column, it may be helpful to make some introductions, detail our background, and give a general overview. Knowing some of our history, logging methods, and current equipment lineup should provide some context for the topics covered in this column.

I want to make it abundantly clear that writing logging articles is not an effort to portray myself as one who has a boundless knowledge of all things in the timber industry. Logging methods are very region-specific: I have found that no matter how much I think I know about logging in northern Indiana, visiting a jobsite in a different area reveals how much more there is to learn about the industry. I am simply someone who enjoys logging and writing, and I want to combine the two interests.

My experiences and conclusions may well be different than yours, and my opinions may change. As a fellow logger once succinctly put it, "I wouldn't give much for a mind I couldn't change". A unique thing about plain businesses is that we are generally willing to network and share ideas and experiences, even with competitors. It is said that experience is the best teacher, but I prefer learning by observation as much as possible. My hope is that you can find this column helpful, and perhaps by sharing, I can help you avoid some of the mistakes I've made.

Someone recently told me that loggers are some of the happiest people in the world because they get to work in a pristine natural environment and breathe fresh clean air. Naturally, this theory was coming from a non-logger. While I certainly do enjoy being out in the woods and can't think of any "office" I'd rather work in, I believe this theory is full of holes, for the following reasons:

- If a logger is using a chainsaw, he is breathing two-stroke exhaust and getting sawdust in his eyes and nose. He must also be laser-focused on his work if he wishes to escape injury (believe me, I know from experience) and actually make money, which leaves little time to "stop and smell the multiflora roses."
- If he is running a skidder or mechanical cutting, he is breathing heated or cooled air, same as if he worked in an office building, but perhaps with a superior view.
- Nature is a much more hostile environment than many people think. When most folks go out to enjoy nature, they are experiencing nature that has been tamed. For instance, they walk on cleared trails instead of struggling through the briars. After the fall in the Garden of Eden, God said the earth would bring forth thorns and thistles. God is always right, and the woods has plenty of evidence to prove it.

I do consider myself happy and I enjoy my work, but it's not that great.

History

I am a second-generation logger. My grandfather was a machinist, a meticulous trade that my father, David Royer, did not adopt, but which may explain his affinity for careful work. After spending one summer on a logging crew in California and a short stint working for a local logger, he founded Royer Logging in 1984. I have two sisters but no brothers. If the common conceptions about multi-generation family businesses are true, then my father worked hard to get it off the ground, I have it easy, and my sons will run it into the ground. It's too depressing to dwell on and besides, my sons are still young and may develop other interests.

Clients sometimes ask how many years I have been logging to which I reply, "I don't know." I grew into the trade, tagging along with Dad and/or the crew during summer vacation and after school, so I honestly can't pinpoint a starting date. When I was school-age, I remember writing numbers for Dad while he scaled logs in the snow. Keeping the figures legible with numb fingers was near impossible, but I can assure you that if whining would've warmed fingers, mine would have overheated. I'd guess I was about thirteen when I started operating a Timberjack 240 cable skidder (quite coincidentally, old family photos prove Dad's hair started whitening at about this time).

I do know that I was felling timber with a Stihl 066 with a 28" bar at age fifteen. I was not forced to, I begged to. I am now thirty-five, so twenty years of experience should be a safe number. Twenty years of logging experience is not long enough to have learned it all, but it's long enough to have made a lot of mistakes and experienced plenty of close calls. Some of these mistakes and close calls may be featured in upcoming articles.

My advice to someone considering a career in logging? Feel free to give it a shot but don't do it unless you enjoy it—it's not easy money. As an old timer once told me when I complained about some hardship, "Son, if it was easy, everybody would do it." I could try to construe logging as a most noble profession; after all, who enabled Jesus' profession as a carpenter? My honest opinion though, is that it is a less-than-ideal occupation since we can't work at home, and it's difficult to incorporate our children into the operation until they're older.

Current Operation

Dad still owns Royer Logging; he buys timber, markets logs, and hauls logs with a knuckle-boom straight truck. Dad's brother Tim hauls logs with a semi, loading with a payloader. Tim's son Jordan operated the skidder for the past ten years but recently found employment elsewhere. Fortunately, Felix Stalter agreed to come onboard and is presently learning the trade. I operate the feller-buncher and move equipment.

Dad owns the trucking side, and I own the harvesting side. Dad doesn't buy enough timber to keep us busy, and we can cut and skid quite a bit faster than Dad and Tim can haul it, so we alternate between cutting Dad's jobs and jobs for a local pallet mill. This mill trucks their logs, which gives our trucks time to catch up. In a typical year, we may cut 1-1.5 MBF (million board foot) for Dad and 2-2.5 MBF for the pallet mill. Pay is production based: the logs are scaled when they arrive at the sawmill, and we are paid a certain rate per board foot. We have had an additional crew in the past, but it is difficult to keep more people gainfully occupied with a weather-dependent work schedule.

When I first started helping in the woods, the equipment lineup consisted of a few chainsaws, an old 240 Timberjack cable skidder, and a Ford knuckle-boom log truck. As the years passed, newer equipment replaced the old, and additional machinery was brought on board to improve production and efficiency. Current lineup includes a 2019 International straight truck with a mid-mount Barko knuckle boom, a 2016 Peterbilt semi coupled with a Pitts log trailer, a 1996 Kenworth semi paired with a tri-axle lowboy, a 2016 John Deere 524KII payloader, a 444 John Deere loader of unknown vintage, a 2003 John Deere 548GIII skidder used as a pinch-hitter, a 2020 Tigercat 602 grapple skidder, a 2021 Komatsu 430-5 feller-buncher with Quadco 2900 head, and a mix of Stihl and Husqvarna saws. As you may observe, the concept of brand loyalty is not well understood around here.

Local Logging Context

When out-of-state folks come to northern Indiana and find out that I am a logger, they usually look one way, then the other, and ask, "Where do you work?" This question is understandable considering the scarcity of wooded acreage here compared to many other parts of the country. It is primarily farm country, but many farms do have a "back forty"; although as land prices increase, more of these "back forties" are disappearing. The main areas that are wooded in this part of the world are not conducive to farming. There are a few spots that are steep, but the terrain here is mostly flat; too swampy to farm is a more common cause of wooded land.

Our jobs do tend to be small, necessitating frequent moves. Jobs generally range from 10,000 to 400,000 board feet. Even if a timber sale could be larger, a consultant forester may break it down into several sales to make it attractive to smaller operators with less capital. The timber is almost all hardwoods. We have a few isolated pine plantations, but conifers aren't native and don't naturally regenerate here. We try not to drive more than about sixty to seventy miles but do occasionally go a bit farther.

Most logging in this area is tree-length "hot logging," regardless of whether it's a manual or mechanical operation. Hot logging means the logs are being skidded as they are cut; the cutter and skidder are working together. Most of our jobs are select cuts where careful work is important. I feel we can do a better job of minimizing damage to the residual trees by hot logging. There are certain scenarios, such as clearcuts, blowdowns, or a very heavy select cut where we may cold log, but it is uncommon. Logs are either hauled tree-length or manually bucked on the landing. I know of no one who uses a knuckle boom and bucksaw except at mill yards. Trees are limbed and topped where they fall, and the tops are left to rot.

The biggest challenge we face is wet ground conditions. The winter of 2023-24 was the worst I can remember for wet ground conditions, and the ground froze hard only for about ten days all winter. Our local weather station reported that it was the second warmest winter on record. The spring of '24 was no better: it seemed to rain about every three days. We were able to produce enough to keep the wolf away from the door, but that was about all. Prolonged stretches like that are depressing. It's helpful to keep a long-term perspective and not get bent out of shape by a bad month or two. Some time off isn't the end of the world; it's a good time to catch up on things that get neglected during the busy times.

I would enjoy hearing feedback from readers, whether technical questions, differing views, or constructive criticism. I also extend an open invitation for readers to come visit our jobsite if they are in the area and lose interest in fabric shopping before their wives do. I am not a smart businessman who knows exactly how much it costs to produce a board foot of timber; in fact, I have no idea. However, I do enjoy sharing ideas and visiting with others in the industry. That said, I highly recommend seeking business advice from those you know and are accountable to and not from some distant fellow who writes a logging column.

Happy Thanksgiving

Hey Dad,

Just wanted to drop you a quick line before the Thanksgiving weekend arrives. The temperature has dropped here in Northern Indiana, making it feel a little more Thanksgiving-ish (we had a good first snow). I even saw a flock...gaggle...er, group of about 20 turkeys trot across our field.

I remember years ago, a few days before Thanksgiving, it was spring-like warm, and we had a thunderstorm. As I turned off the lights and locked the doors for the night, I was surprised by a flash of lightning and boom of thunder that rattled the old windows in our house. Two seconds later, I heard the pitter-patter of little feet running down the hallway.

With my youngest sons, Cal (4) and Jed (2), in my arms, I walked them back to their dark room, promising to lie between their beds on the floor for a while. And there I lay, using a teddy bear as my pillow, wondering if the floor always felt that hard and calculating how long before I could creep back to MY bed unnoticed.

I remember feeling a little perturbed by the whole situation until an odd sensation swooshed over me, reminding me that one day I would miss doing this. My sons would grow up and wouldn't need me to lie between their beds. Then I prayed, "Thank you, God, for thunderstorms and for little boys who need their dad."

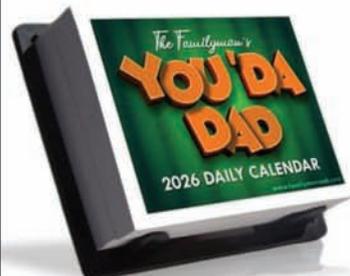

On that uncomfortable floor, I spent time thanking Him for so many other things that I tend to take for granted. It's just that things get so busy and crazy that I forget. But then God graciously sends a thunderstorm and two frightened little boys to remind me of what's important.

So Dad, you may not have a thunderstorm tonight, but tonight spend a few minutes lying on the floor of a child's bedroom in the dark...thanking God for the great privilege of being a dad.

Happy Thanksgiving....you 'da dad,

These Terms also form the basis for the final contract of sale between the Seller and the Buyer.

- Auctions Conducted Under These Terms. The Auction is conducted under and in accordance with these Terms, the Terms posted on Auctioneer's website, applicable law, and any announcements or corrections made by Auctioneer during the Auction. "Absolute Auction" or "Absolute" applies only if and when expressly indicated and means that property is to be sold to the highest bidder regardless of the amount of the final bid, with no limiting conditions, restrictions, or reservations. UNLESS SPECIFICALLY AND EXPRESSLY STATED BY AUCTIONEER IN WRITING, NO PROPERTY IS BEING SOLD ABSOLUTE OR AT AN ABSOLUTE AUCTION.

"Auction" means the auction sale at which Auctioneer solicits bids, or is scheduled to solicit bids.

"Auction Site" means the physical location of the Auction, or, for an Auction conducted entirely online, the location at which Property may be inspected.

"Bidder Number" means the number or other identifier issued by Auctioneer to a Registered Bidder for the purposes of identifying bids to such Registered Bidder.

"Fall of the Hammer" means the point, after bids have been received, at which Auctioneer declares a Lot of Personal Property "sold" to Bidder acknowledged by Auctioneer as having made the Winning Bid. During an auction that is exclusively online, the Fall of the Hammer will occur electronically at the end of timed (or extended) bidding. In an auction that is Subject to Seller's Confirmation, the Fall of the Hammer will occur on Seller's Confirmation of the High Bid Subject to Confirmation.

Property may be Knocked Down electronically at the conclusion of a timed online auction event.

Buyer agrees to pay the Winning Bid plus the applicable Buyer’s Premium.
6. Access to Auction Site. Participants assume all risks associated with their presence at the Auction Site or their access to the online bidding platform utilized by Auctioneer. Any person may be denied access to the Auction, the Auction Site, and the online bidding platform utilized by Auctioneer, and may be removed at Auctioneer’s discretion.
7. Nature of the Auction. This Property is being sold at the Auction in the manner indicated on the first page of this Agreement.
8. Bidding. Registered Bidders may only bid at the Auction by agreeing to be bound by these Bidder Terms. By bidding, each Registered Bidder acknowledges and agrees that such Registered Bidder has had a full and fair opportunity to read, and understands, these Bidder Terms, and affirms that such Registered Bidder is subject to and bound by these Bidder Terms.
9. No Bid Retraction. Bidder may not retract a bid that has been acknowledged by Auctioneer or that has been submitted online. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Auctioneer is acting in reliance on tendered bids in the conduct of the Auction, and that bid retraction is disruptive and interferes with the Auction, and that, as an inducement for Auctioneer to accept such Bidder’s Bidder Registration and for such Bidder to bid at the Auction, Bidder agrees not to withdraw or to attempt to withdraw any tendered bid that has been acknowledged by Auctioneer.
10. Online Auction. The following terms and conditions apply if the Auction is conducted, in whole or in part, online:
  - 10.1. Online Bidding Registration. Anyone desiring to bid online, or to establish the possibility of bidding online, will be required to create an online bidding account by completing all necessary forms and providing required information.
  - 10.2. Bidder Terms and Conditions; Notices and Announcements. The Auction will be conducted in accordance with Auctioneer’s Terms and any notices or announcements by Auctioneer and/or posted on Auctioneer’s website.
  - 10.3. Posted Times. All times are based on the Eastern Standard Time zone unless stated otherwise. Posted closing times and time displays are approximate. Auctioneer reserves the right to close early or extend the Auction at any time at Auctioneer’s sole and absolute discretion.
  - 10.4. Online Bidding Increments. Auctioneer may establish bid increments, and may modify or change bid increments, in Auctioneer’s sole and absolute discretion.
  - 10.5. Records of Online Activity. Absent clerical errors, Auctioneer’s records will be deemed final and conclusive.
  - 10.6. Technology Disruptions. Auctioneer will not be responsible for technology disruptions, errors, or failures (including disruptions to bidding or the failure to execute, recognize, or record online bids), whether caused by (i) loss of connectivity, breakdown, disruption, or failure of the Online Auction Platform, (ii) breakdown, disruption, or failure of a Bidder’s internet connection, computer, or system, (iii) viruses or software malfunction, or (iv) otherwise. Auctioneer may, but will not be required to, continue, suspend, delay, extend, reschedule, or close the Auction because of disruptions caused by technology failures, even after bidding has commenced.
  - 10.7. Failures by Online Auction Platform Provider and its Affiliates or Contractors. Auctioneer may use an Online Auction Platform Provider to facilitate the Auction. Under no circumstances will Auctioneer be liable for any failure of the Online Auction Platform Provider to perform all or any of its obligations, or for the failure of any affiliates, employees, agents, representatives, or contractors of the Online Auction Platform Provider to perform their obligations.
  - 10.8. Auto Extend Feature. Any Online Bidding Period may include an auto extend feature. This means that, if an online bid is entered within a set time period approaching the end of the established Online Bidding Period, the Online Bidding Period will automatically be extended for an additional amount of time in increments established by Auctioneer, and will continue to be so extended until there is a set period of time that lapses during which no online bids are received, after which bidding will close.
  - 10.9. Disclaimer. Auctioneer makes no representations or warranties, and disclaims any representations or warranties, (i) that the Online Auction Platform or any related website or technology will be uninterrupted, error free or virus free, (ii) as to the results that may be obtained by using the Online Auction Platform or any related website or technology, or (iii) as to the accuracy, completeness, reliability, security, or current nature of the Online Auction Platform or any related website technology.
  - 10.10. Responsibility for Online Bids. If a Winning Bid is sent to Auctioneer from the computer of a Registered Bidder, and is, thereafter, confirmed by Seller, such Registered Bidder will be the Buyer.
  - 10.11. No Reduction or Retraction of Online Bids. Online bids may not be reduced or retracted.
  - 10.12. Competing Online and Onsite Bids. In the event of contemporaneously made online and onsite bids, Auctioneer will determine which bid is the successful bid, and may, in Auctioneer’s discretion, reopen the bidding.

- 10.13. Winning Bidders Subject to Certification by Auctioneer. The final determination of the Winning Bidder is subject to certification by Auctioneer; and any email or electronic message (whether generated manually or automatically) is subject to such certification.
11. Absentee Bids; Remote Bidding. In Auctioneer's discretion, Auctioneer may receive Absentee Bids and/or bids tendered by remote Bidders (whether telephonically or otherwise). All prebids and maxbids placed online are considered absentee bids. Auctioneer pledges complete integrity in the treatment of absentee bids and absentee bids may be initiated and advanced in accordance with Auctioneer's policies and procedures. Auctioneer has the right to initiate any absentee bids at 25% to 50% of their maximum amount. Auctioneer will make reasonable efforts to execute Absentee Bids, but Auctioneer will have no liability to any Absentee Bidder for the failure to execute any Absentee Bids for any reason whatsoever. Each Absentee Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Property may be sold to another Bidder for the maximum amount of the Absentee Bid based on a bidding sequence that causes another Bidder to reach such amount first. If the execution of an Absentee Bid at its maximum amount would require Auctioneer to accept a bid that is less than a full bidding increment, Auctioneer has the sole and absolute discretion to accept or reject such bid. An Absentee Bidder may provide instructions to the Auctioneer to advance the bid by one or more bidding increments after the maximum amount of the Absentee Bid is, or would be, reached. Auctioneer acts only as the agent of the Seller, and the receipt and/or execution of Absentee Bids will not create an agency relationship between Auctioneer and any Absentee Bidder.
12. Bid Increments. Bid increments are established and controlled by Auctioneer, and may be adjusted or modified in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.
13. Registered Bidders Responsible for Bids Placed on Bidder Number. Each Registered Bidder is responsible for the Bidder Number issued to such Registered Bidder. Auctioneer is not responsible for monitoring or policing the use of Bidder Numbers, and each Registered Bidder is responsible for all bids made on the Bidder Number issued to such Registered Bidder even if the Registered Bidder claims that the Bidder Number was lost, stolen, or misappropriated, unless notice of a lost, stolen, or misappropriated Bidder Number was provided to Auctioneer prior to an unauthorized bid being made. Absent a clerical error, Auctioneer's recording of bids against a Bidder Number will be conclusive as to the making of such bid by, or on behalf of, the Registered Bidder.
14. Withdrawal of Property. Auctioneer has the absolute right to withdraw any Property from the Auction prior to the Fall of the Hammer, unless the Property is explicitly provided that the Property is being sold at an Absolute Auction.
15. Winning Bid; Buyer. Pursuant to these Bidder Terms, the Bidder making the Winning Bid for any Lot of Personal Property will be the Buyer of such Property.
16. All Property Sold "AS IS", "WHERE IS", and "WITH ALL FAULTS". ALL PROPERTY IS BEING OFFERED AND SOLD IN ITS AS IS/WHERE IS CONDITION AT THE TIME OF THE AUCTION, WITH ALL FAULTS, INCLUDING ANY HIDDEN DEFECTS OF ANY NATURE. NEITHER AUCTIONEER NOR SELLER MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, OR GUARANTEES WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, REGARDING THE NATURE, VALUE, SOURCE, AUTHENTICITY, FITNESS, MERCHANTABILITY, AND/OR ANY OTHER ASPECT OR CHARACTERISTICS OF SUCH PROPERTY. NO STATEMENT ANYWHERE, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING VERBAL STATEMENTS MADE BY AUCTIONEER, WILL BE DEEMED A WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION BY AUCTIONEER OR SELLER. WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AUTHENTICITY, ORIGIN, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED. EACH BIDDER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT HE, SHE, OR IT CANNOT RELY, AND HAS NOT RELIED, ON ANY REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, OR GUARANTEE MADE BY THE SELLER OR ANYONE ACTING AS AGENT OF THE SELLER, ORALLY OR IN WRITING, ABOUT THE PROPERTY, OR ANY OF IT. BY BIDDING, EACH BIDDER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT SUCH BIDDER HAS HAD A FULL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITY TO INSPECT THE PROPERTY, AND IS RELYING SOLELY ON, OR HAS WAIVED, SUCH BIDDER'S INSPECTION AND INVESTIGATION (i) IN DETERMINING WHETHER TO BID, (ii) IN DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF A BID, AND (iii) IN BIDDING.
17. Announcements. Subject to the limitation set forth in these Bidder Terms, all terms and conditions and other announcements made by Auctioneer on the day of the Auction are binding and take precedence over any advertisements or listings.
18. Bidder's Inspection. By bidding, each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that such Bidder has had a full and fair opportunity to inspect the Property, and is relying solely on, or has waived, such Bidder's inspection and investigation (i) in determining whether to bid, (ii) in determining the amount of a bid, and (iii) in bidding. Bidder accepts any and all risks associated with the purchase and/or use of the Property. Bidder agrees to defend, hold harmless, indemnify, and protect both Auctioneer and Seller from any all claims of injury arising out of or relating to the purchase or use of the Property.
19. Description of Property. Unless otherwise expressly stated otherwise in writing, any description of Property is based solely on visual impression, and is given solely for identification purposes, and does not create any warranty, expressed or implied, or representation by Auctioneer.
20. Contract of Sale for Personal Property. By operation of these Terms, no additional or further writing will be required to evidence the existence of a contract of sale for any Personal Property Knocked-Down at the Auction regardless of the Purchase Price, and these Bidder Terms, together with Auctioneer's clerking sheets or other physical or digital notation identifying the Lot, the Hammer Price, and the Buyer, will be conclusive evidence as to the terms of the sale. These Bidder Terms will be incorporated into the contract between each Buyer and Seller.
21. Bidding by or on Behalf of Seller. At an Absolute Auction there is no Seller bidding. The Seller or anyone acting on the Seller's behalf will not bid (directly or indirectly) on any Property put up at Absolute Auction. At a Reserve Auction, the Seller or anyone acting on the Seller's behalf will not bid (directly or indirectly) on any Property put up at Reserve Auction, unless the Auctioneer announces and discloses that the Seller (or someone on behalf of the Seller) will be bidding at the Auction.
22. Conduct of the Auction. Auctioneer will regulate all matters relating to the conduct of the Auction and Auctioneer's decisions will be final and binding. Auctioneer will have control over bidding, and Auctioneer will resolve any and all disputes. If (i) a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid or while bidding is otherwise being terminated, or (ii) promptly after the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding Auctioneer is made aware of a bid that was unnoticed prior to the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding, and it is demonstrated to Auctioneer's satisfaction that such bid was, in fact, timely made, or (iii) promptly after the Fall of the Hammer or other termination of the bidding Auctioneer is made aware that Auctioneer and a bid assistant or ringman, or multiple bid assistants or ringmen, have acknowledged bids in the same amount bid from different bidders, or (iv) some other bid dispute arises, Auctioneer may, in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion, reopen the bidding (but will not be required to). Any contract formed with the Fall of the Hammer will be subject to the conditions set forth in this Section. If bidding is reopened pursuant to this Section, the bid recognized by Auctioneer prior to the reopening of the bidding will be held, and may not be retracted, and, if no further bids are received, such bid will be the Winning Bid.
23. Motor Vehicles and Equipment. Any and all motor vehicles and motorized equipment (including, without being limited to, automobiles, trucks, vans, recreational vehicles, motor cycles, motor scooters, tractors, earth moving equipment and other heavy equipment) must be paid in full prior to removal from the Auction Site; and, if any vehicles or equipment is paid for with a check, the vehicle or equipment will not be released unless and until the check clears the drawee bank and the funds have been received by Auctioneer.
24. All Sales Final. ALL SALES ARE FINAL. NO REFUNDS OR RETURNS.
25. Sales Tax. Subject to applicable exemptions, if any, each Buyer is responsible for the payment of sales tax for each Lot Knocked-Down at the Auction, which sales tax will be collected by Auctioneer at the time payment is made.

26. Payment. All Personal Property must be paid for in-full by onsite Buyers on the day of the Auction, at or before the conclusion of the Auction, and before any Property is removed from the Auction Site by or on behalf of the Buyer. Online purchases are due upon receipt of your invoice. Onsite purchases may be paid in cash or approved check, and, when authorized by the Seller and made available by Auctioneer, by credit card or debit card. Cash payments totaling Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) or more will not be accepted. If onsite bidders wish to send a wire, they must present a bank letter of credit (with limit stated equal to or higher than the amount owed by bidder) and wire must be sent no later than one business day after the auction. Online purchases must be paid by credit card or approved check; provided, however, that any online purchases in excess of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) must be paid by wire transfer or certified funds unless other arrangements are made with Auctioneer in Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion.
27. Wire Transfer Payments. Buyer shall obtain verbal verification of all bank account information from Bright Star Auctions prior to initiating transfer. Except as otherwise provided by law, we shall not be liable for any loss or damage due to misplaced, unauthorized or fraudulent fund transfers.
28. ACH/eCheck Payments. By providing account information to Bright Star Auctions, buyer gives permission for Bright Star Auctions to retain payment information on file and represents they are the authorized account holder. Upon authorization to collect payment from Buyer's account and prior to transfer, Buyer is responsible to notify their financial institution of the impending transaction. Buyer agrees to notify Bright Star Auctions of any changes in account information.
29. Returned Checks. Any checks that are returned unpaid will be subject to a returned check fee in the amount of Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($50.00). In addition to the foregoing, Auctioneer will be entitled to recover, from the issuer of a returned check, all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, for the collection of payment made in the form of a check that has been returned unpaid.
30. No Stop Payment Orders or Credit Card Chargebacks. Each Bidder agrees that such Bidder will not, under any circumstances, (i) issue a stop payment order with respect to any checks issued at or in connection with the Auction, or (ii) initiate a credit card chargeback with respect to any purchases at the Auction. Each Bidder further agrees that if, in violation of these Terms, a stop payment order is issued or a credit card chargeback is initiated, these Terms will be conclusive evidence of the Bidder's (i) waiver of any rights to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback, and (ii) agreement not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback; and each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that on Auctioneer's presentation of these Terms to the bank, credit card company, or other financial institution against which a check was drawn or that issued the credit card on which charges were made, such bank, credit card company, or other financial institution will reverse any stop-payment order and/or deny any credit card chargeback, and will re-credit all amounts to or for the account of Auctioneer. If, in violation of these Terms, a Bidder issues a stop payment order or initiates a credit card chargeback, such Bidder, even if successful, will remain liable for all purchases made at the Auction, and will be responsible for all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by or on behalf of Auctioneer and/or Seller in challenging the stop payment order or credit card chargeback and in collecting payment. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that the covenant not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback is a condition to the issuance of a Bidder Number to such Bidder, and is being made as an inducement for Auctioneer to accept such Bidder's Bidder Registration and to issue a Bidder Number. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that Auctioneer is relying on the covenant not to issue a stop payment order or to initiate a credit card chargeback in accepting such Bidder's Bidder Registration and in issuing a Bidder Number.
31. Pick-up and Removal; Shipping. Each Buyer is responsible for removal of Lots purchased at the Auction, including shipping to remote Buyers. Pick-up and removal dates and times will be as posted on Auctioneer's website or announced at the Auction. Unless otherwise agreed, each Buyer is solely responsible for the disassembly, removal, shipping, and transportation of each Lot purchased by such Buyer. Tools, packing material, and/or assistance will not be supplied at Pickup, so Buyer must plan accordingly. Disassembly and removal shall be done in a quiet and workmanlike manner, and each Buyer, in making its bid, shall thereby indemnify and hold harmless both Auctioneer and Seller against any and all damage caused by the acts of the Buyer, or such Buyer's employees, agents, representatives, or independent contractors in connection with the Pickup. Any and all damages to the Pickup site, including, without being limited to damages to land or buildings, caused by a Buyer or by an employee, agent, representative, or independent contractor of a Buyer, will be repaired by, or at the expense of, such Buyer to the satisfaction of Auctioneer and Seller. Each Buyer must show a copy of the invoice (digital or hard copy) and government-issued photo identification before Lots will be released. No Buyer shall bring pets or young children to the Pickup, as the movement of Lots presents an extremely high-risk environment that could result in injury or death.
32. Insurance. Any work performed by Purchaser(s) or Purchaser Representative (including sub-contractors) shall be insured and provide proof of coverage against all claims for injuries against persons or damages to property which may arise from or in connection with the removal of items or equipment. Insurance coverage requirements are as follows: General Liability $1,000,000/$2,000,000 and Worker's Compensation $1,000,000 or as required by State Law. Seller shall be listed as additionally insured, if required.
33. Abandoned Items. Any Lots not paid in full, not picked up and removed in the time provided (but, under any circumstances, within thirty (30) days after the Auction), or for which payment has not cleared (within five (5) days after the Auction), will be considered abandoned and may be offered for sale at a later auction or subject to other disposition. Such abandonment does not, however, relieve the Buyer or the Buyer's obligation to make payment in full. Any payments made by or on behalf of a Buyer are non-refundable, and Buyers will remain responsible for the full purchase price of all Lots sold to them. In addition, Buyer's bidding privileges may be suspended at future auctions.
34. Claims. With respect to Lots removed from the Auction Site by or on behalf of a Buyer, no claims or returns will be allowed and no claim will be allowed for adjustments or rescission of any sales based on the failure of a Lot to correspond with any standard and/or expectation of the Buyer.
35. Risk of Loss for Personal Property. Risk of loss with respect to Personal Property passes to the Buyer with the Fall of the Hammer. Neither Auctioneer nor Seller will be liable for any loss or damage to a Lot after such Lot is sold at the Auction, other than as may be directly and solely caused Auctioneer's negligence, gross negligence, or intentional misconduct in handling and safeguarding the Lot while in Auctioneer's sole and exclusive possession.
36. Buyer's Remedies; Bidders/Buyers Not Entitled to Incidental or Consequential Damages. To the extent that any Bidder or Buyer may be entitled to damages or remedies, the sole and exclusive remedy available to Bidders and Buyers is a return of the Purchase Price actually paid. Under no circumstances will Auctioneer or the Seller be liable for incidental or consequential damages, including, without being limited to lost profits or reduced productivity. Each Bidder acknowledges and agrees that no Bidder or Buyer is entitled to specific performance or other equitable relief.
37. Seller's Remedies. If any Buyer breached such Buyer's obligations under these Terms or under a sale contract with the Seller of Property sold at the Auction, in addition to all other legal and equitable remedies, such property may be resold and the breaching Buyer will be responsible for any and all damages, including any deficiency or reduction in the Purchase Price, along with incidental damages.

38. Indemnification. Each Bidder agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Auctioneer and Seller harmless from any current or future claim regarding the Auction or the Property, including, without being limited to, fitness, use, damage, safety, or injuries to persons or property.
39. Private Sale. No Participant or Registered Bidder may offer to enter into a Private Sale for the purchase of any of the Property prior to, during, or after the Auction. If any of the Property is not Knocked Down at the Auction and Bidder enters into an agreement to buy (i) any of the Personal Property from the Seller within ten (10) days after the Auction, and/or (ii) any of the Real Property within ninety (90) days after the Auction, Bidder shall pay to Auctioneer an amount equal to Auctioneer's full commission and Buyer's Premium.
40. Waiver. Certain provisions of these Bidder Terms are for the exclusive benefit of Auctioneer and/or Seller(s). Such provisions, including, without being limited to, Bidder registration and qualification requirements, deposit and payment terms (including the method, form, and timing of payment), removal and delivery terms, and Property inspection terms), do not create, and will not be deemed to create, any benefits or rights in favor of any other persons, including competing Bidders, and may not be enforced by any other persons. Either globally or on a case by case basis Auctioneer and/or Seller may (but will not be required to) waive any provisions of these Terms that are intended for the benefit of Auctioneer and/or Seller.
41. Compliance with the Law. Bidder shall not engage in any illegal conduct on the Auction Site and shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws. Bid pooling occurs when Bidders collude to regulate, and artificially suppress, bidding in an effort to reduce the Hammer Price. Anyone participating in bid pooling will be removed from the Auction Site and referred for prosecution. Theft is a serious offense, and, if discovered, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Instances of theft will result in immediate termination of bidding and removal from the Auction Site.
42. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial. These Bidder Terms will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana, including its statutes of limitations, but without regard to its rules governing conflict of laws. All claims, disputes, and other matters between the parties will be brought in the state or federal courts sitting in and for Elkhart County, Indiana, which courts will have exclusive jurisdiction, and will be the exclusive venue, for any and all such claims, disputes, and other matters. By submitting a Bidder Registration and accepting a Bidder Number each Registered Bidder irrevocably and unconditionally (i) agrees that any claim or suit relating to these Bidder Terms, or the transactions contemplated hereby, will be brought in the state or federal courts sitting in and for Elkhart County, Indiana.; (ii) consents to the jurisdiction of such courts for any such claim, suit or cause of action; (iii) waives any objection that such party may have to the laying of venue of any such claim, suit or cause of action in such courts; and (iv) waives any objection to the bringing of such claim, suit or cause of action in such courts on the grounds of forum non conveniens. Each Bidder, Buyer, and other Participants waive the right to a jury trial.
43. Attorneys' Fees. If any Participant breaches such Participant's obligations under these Terms, Auctioneer and/or Seller will be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing their rights.
