I had ordered an item based on the picture on their webpage. The item sent was not the same item. With apologizes and no questions asked, they offered a credit or to return the item for a full refund. I without hesitation buy from this ebay seller again. Service was excellent.

When the hitch was delivered, the box was in pretty rough shape. Thought the contents seemed ok. Upon installation, the 2 L brackets to hold the distribution bars in place were missing. Full transparency, I bypassed contacting the seller and contacted CURT. Upon verification that the hitch was purchased through an authorized seller, they sent the L brackets and I received them in just a few days. I stand behind CURT and AUTHORIZED SELLERS of their products.

I had a positive experience with the Seller. The product was well packaged and arrived undamaged. The primary transport company did not update tracking and handed off product to another co, which delayed delivery by a week. The seller stepped in and got the ball rolling and made things right. Great customer service! I would definitely shop with them again!

Super Fast Shipping, As Described, Great Quality, Value, Condition and appearance. Thank you for the easy transaction and attention to detail, and great packaging for shipping. I highly recommend this seller for the Great Service they provided me. Only thing I can say about the product is, they need to provide instructions for use and not just a QR code. Beyond disappointed in manufacturers omitting the items we think we are expecting and paying for.

Ordered a bed liner for my Ford Maverick. It arrived pretty quickly but with two holes in the front (cab side) of it. There is no way for me to know when/where the damage happened, but I refused delivery. Seller was very quick to respond and issued a refund the next day. I give 5 stars to the seller for their handling of the situation and I will look to purchase from them again.

Received what was described and ordered. Shipped timely. Less expensive than the OEM dealer . If the need arises would buy from them again. Box did have a hole in it, that is on the carrier. Part was not compromised.

Item arrived on time. The part number on the shipping box was correct. HOWEVER, the part inside was not correct. Contacted seller directly, and did receive a full refund. Due to some technical errors somewhere, it was quite delayed though. Very pleasant to deal with and I understand mistakes happen, so would use them again if needed.

As far as the shipping was concerned, it was amazingly fast. Like I mentioned on another review, I had ordered the original part from a Chevrolet part supplier. Three weeks passed and I still did not have a tracking number or any information. So I canceled the order. To their credit, they refunded my money immediately. It was very smooth, but this part arrived in four days and the shipping was free as opposed to $378 that I was going to have to pay if I went with a genuine Chevrolet parts suppli
