

INREACH PROFESSIONAL FLEX PLANS

Our professional flex subscription plans¹ offer three levels that meet the operational needs of your teams or organization, including the following:

- All flex plans are month-to-month and only require a 30-day commitment
- Suspend service in the offseason or when staff is not deployed in the field
- Move up or down a plan for free when your tracking or communication needs change
- Choose from 10- or 2-minute tracking intervals, or contact us for custom options
- Centralized billing to one account, with multiple payment options
- Get the most out of your professional account with dedicated product support, billing and sales teams
